

LOCAL P.T.A. ACTIVITIES

Crenshaw

Crenshaw Elementary P.T.A. will hold its regular March meeting on Wednesday, March 7, at the school cafeteria.

Election of officers will be held and winners of the paper drive held on Feb. 17, will be announced. There will be a panel discussion by ten ages and parents following the film, "Farewell to Childhood."

All parents are invited to come and participate in the discussion and take part in choosing P.T.A. officers for the next year.

A skating party will be held at the Roller Dome on Monday, March 12. Further details will be announced at the P.T.A. meeting.

El Nido

Founders' Day meeting of the El Nido Elementary P.T.A. was held Wednesday, Feb. 8, at the El Nido School. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Paul Herring, president. Pledge of allegiance was led by Charles Gasci. The inspirational was read by Mrs. Pearl Hebert. The group sang a Founders' Day birthday song.

Mrs. Lewis Le Francois, Founders' Day chairman, announced the slide "We Knew Them When" to be presented by the executive board of the El Nido P.T.A. The slide compared the lives of an 1897 P.T.A. president and the modern day 1958 P.T.A. president.

Orchid corsages were presented to Mrs. Philo Mellor, past president of El Nido P.T.A., and Mrs. Glenn Runsted, who was president of the El Nido Mothers' Club before the P.T.A. was founded. Visiting guests were from Los Angeles Tenth District P.T.A. and Mrs. Jessa Marquis, president of Santa Barbara Street P.T.A., and Mrs. John C. O'Brian, president of Norwood Street P.T.A.

The annual Founders Day program was highlighted with a play entitled "Just the Facts" at the Meadow Park P.T.A. monthly meeting Wednesday, Feb. 15. The play was very informative, explaining when the P.T.A. was founded, its object and how it helps children. Taking part in the play were Frank Tuttle, E. C. Terry, Mrs. W. B. Marshall, Larry Tuttle, Mrs. A. T. Knapp, Mrs. Bert Scott and Mrs. Frank Tuttle.

During the business meeting the nominating committee was elected. Serving on this committee are Misses Del Rogers, V. G. Langford, Ralph Wood, J. T. Angquist, Mrs. A. Zillman, J. W. Black, parliamentarian, and Principal Herbert Parris.

Mrs. W. W. Foser, president, announced that the resignations of Mrs. Bill Jukes, health and dental chairman, and Mrs. Bud Swenson, chairman were accepted by the board. Filling these positions will be Mrs. George Schindler Jr. and Mrs. Glen Park.

Meadow Park School has been selected to have supervised instruction every Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. under the direction of Monte Ormsby. A woman instructor will be at school Saturday morning to conduct classes in dramatics, rhythm and dancing. Children of school age are invited.

A report on the Open Council meeting Feb. 15, was given by Mrs. A. W. Westrich who also announced that P.T.A. president, Mrs. W. W. Foser, will serve on the Torrance Council Board, in the capacity of corresponding secretary.

Founders' meeting was also announced as being night. A large number of books were donated by members. C. H. Campbell constructed and donated a seat which will be used in the Open Council Unit.

Cub Pack 966 had their annual Blue and Gold dinner Feb. 21.

The scout mothers of Troop 966 are planning a spaghetti dinner and dance to be held March 17, in Walters. Those who are interested please contact Mrs. F. W. Dumban.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. N. F. Larson and 5th grade room mothers.

Carson Street Meadow Park

Founders' Day was celebrated at the first meeting to be held in the new auditorium at Carson Street School. Mrs. John Raschke, president, opened the meeting with the flag salute, led by Don A. Cub Scout Pack 280-C, under the leadership of Roy Carver.

Mrs. W. A. Blackes, president of Wilmington-Gardena Council, was introduced by Mrs. Raschke.

Mrs. M. C. Wallace, principal, introduced and presented gifts to past presidents: Misses Roy Carter, Clarence Wittenberg, Alfred Barkan, Jack Spence, Fred Cain, Elmer Lanaster, Herbert Johnston, Charles Forney, and May Stevens, who was the second president of Carson Street School and served in 1923 and 1928.

Ben Guiz and Mrs. William Boller were recipients of P.T.A. life memberships. Presentations were made by Mrs. Jack Spence.

A speaker's rostrum, made by Henry Maxwell, was presented to Mrs. Wallace, the association's gift for the new auditorium.

Mrs. Henry Maxwell read the report of the nominating committee: Misses John Raschke, president; Richard Loff, first vice president; Henry Maxwell, second vice president; Laurence Love, secretary; Mrs. Gus Walker, treasurer; Mrs. Don Morris, auditor, and Mr. John Raschke, historian.

Miss Michael Lutz, program chairman, presented a play "Mrs. Jones" with Albert Bell as Mr. Jones and teacher of conversation. Also featured were John Sauerhan and Misses Russell Gilbert, Margaret Cawley, James Liden, Elmer Reichelberger, and Ralph Greba.

Annual Founders' Day gift donations will be presented to a child welfare fund under the P.T.A. auspices, Mrs. Raschke reports.

Audience prizes were won by pupils in Mrs. Virginia Skadden's room.

Refreshments in a heart mood were served by the second grade representatives, as hostesses.

High School

Torrance High School P.T.A. celebrated Founders' Day last Tuesday evening in the school cafeteria. Wesley Peterson led the group in the first salute, "Growing Up" was the title of the devotional given by Mrs. Kenneth Ruffel.

Mrs. A. C. Turner, past president of the Torrance High School P.T.A. was honored.

A life membership was presented to Bruce Wagner, principal of the high school.

The following committee was elected to nominate officers for next year: Mrs. Ross Dorsett, Mrs. Kenneth Ruffel, Mrs. John Patrick and Mrs. Paul Humphreys.

"Science, Then and Now" was the topic for the program which followed the business meeting.

Robert McKnight, chemistry teacher, gave an interesting display of cameras and films then and now. Jack Stoll, a chemistry student, gave a demonstration of the work being done in that department.

Alan Moore, instructor of physics, gave an interesting account of the work being done in that phase of science. Nancy Humphreys, assisted by Stan Willcox and Dick Dawson, student of physics, gave a demonstration of how electric power is carried and transmitted from the power station to homes.

Robert Prowell, chairman of the science committee, introduced a panel of teachers and parents who discussed science needs in the high school. The panel included Alan Moore, Robert McKnight and Alfred Smith, teachers of science, and John Patrick and Mr. Herring, parents of students in Torrance High School. The conclusion of the panel was that more need be done to stimulate high school students' interest in science and that Torrance High School is striving toward this end.

The high school orchestra provided music for the evening under the direction of Glenn Hawley.
