

P T A ACTIVITIES

Newton

Thursday evening, March 15, the Newton PTA had a pre-showing of the "Famous Fashions for Frustrated Fathers."

The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Ross Dorsett, Cub Scout Troop 656 of Hollywood Riviera led in the flag salute. The four boys participating were Tommy Backus, Donald Glosser, Keith Harlean and Craig Robina.

Mrs. Donald Hauser, ways and means chairman, gave a report on Circus Day at Newton. It will be held April 14 and lots of enjoyable things have been planned. There will be two performances at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m.

The treasurer's report was given by Blayne Asher, followed by election of officers. Mrs. Henry Graef was unanimously elected to fill the office of president for the coming year. Her slate of officers will be: Mrs. Marvin Sims, first vice president; Mrs. Albert Wilson, second vice president; Mrs. Jack Holmes, third vice president; Mrs. Wilfred Knapp, fourth vice president; Mrs. Richard De Armit, recording secretary; Mrs. William Forrest, corresponding secretary; Orville Robinson, treasurer; Mrs. Walter McClelland, historian, and Victor Kilburn, auditor.

Mrs. Marvin Sims, program chairman, turned the meeting over to Tom Backus, men's membership chairman, who presented "Famous Fashions for Frustrated Fathers." James Hall was the master of ceremonies and Ray Pickering provided background music on the piano. The models in order of their appearance were: Tom Backus, cowboy; Ross Dorsett, gambler; Roy Ferguson, armyman; Robert Speech, wife's little helper; Max Moberly, handyman; John Hill, morning attire; Lee Kendall, debonair golfer; Webster Smith, ski expert, and the fashion show closed with Tom Backus modeling a wool bathing suit with straps.

A social hour followed with refreshments served by the third grade room mothers.

Hillside

Mrs. Jack Carrell was elected president for the coming year for the Hillside PTA at its meeting March 8. Other newly elected officers are Mrs. Bert Manner, first vice president; Mrs. Maurice Tynes, second vice president; Mrs. W. C. Thompson, secretary; Mrs. Robert Trimble, treasurer; Robert Allen, auditor; and Mrs. W. Templin, historian.

These officers will be installed in a meeting in May and will assume their duties June 1. Mrs. Susan Water's fifth grade students and Frank Demeyan's seventh grade students were featured on the program. The theme of the meeting was "Promoting International Relationship." The seventh grade girls showed handmade life size cardboard dolls which they had painted in costumes of different countries and nationalities. Boys from the class gave short talks as each doll was shown.

Mrs. Waters then showed colored slides of Central Europe which had been taken on tour. She also talked on youth hosteling in Europe.

A paper drive to be held at the school April 4 from 7 a.m. until 6 p.m. was announced. A cash prize will be awarded to the winning classroom in the lower and upper grades.

Mrs. Edward Burlich spoke on dental health week and Mrs. Robert Van derfeld announced the Hillside PTA had won honorable mention in the California State magazine.

Attendance prize went to Mr. Demeyan's room and third grade mothers were hostesses. The next board meeting will be held April 5 at the home of Mrs. M. Frislie.

259th Place

Mrs. Palmer Orsith, of 25118 President St. was elected president of 259th Pl. PTA at the annual election meeting of the association Thursday in the school auditorium to succeed Mrs. R. E. Prain at the close of the school year in June.

Other elected to complete the list of officers, were Mrs. W. N. Kopley Jr., first vice president; Mrs. H. B. McDonald, second vice president; Mrs. E. M. Nordgren, third vice president; Mrs. E. M. Robinson, secretary; Mrs. E. B. Biglin, treasurer; Mrs. E. Christofferson, auditor; Mrs. R. P. Bodermann, historian. Mrs. H. B. McDonald, chairman of the nominating committee, presented a report of candidates for the elective offices. Miss Frances Dastarac spoke on the great need at the Men-
