The Women's Guild of the Seaside Community Evangelical and Reformed Church, 230th St. and Ocean Ave., met at the church fellowship hall Tuesday evening with President Louise Miller in the chair. After a short business meeting, a program under the direction of Frances Gulbransen was presented. It was dedicated to a Lenten quiet hour. Roberta Parker was hostess for the refreshments and short fellowship period which ended the meeting.

Five of the younger set will be brought into the community church Sunday by confirmation. The new members include Georgine Hollowell, Carol Lee, Kay Welliver, Robert Lee, and John Yackie. A meeting of the Young Mothers Club, led by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moss, Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. George Hollowell, will meet in the fellowship hall Sunday evening at 6:30. All youth from 12 to 17 are being invited to attend the meeting.

Cub Scouts of Pack 738-C met Friday evening with Den Mothers Lois Martin, Carmen Talbot, and Bess Maylin. Guest speaker was John Cummins who illustrated his talk with films from the Navy on skin diving and submarine. Cookies, lemonade, and coffee were served later.

Cub Scouts under the leadership of Lois Martin went shell hunting along Palos Verdes Cove Saturday. Nine Cub Scouts on the trip reported a number of interesting discoveries in the shell line.

In the stork department, we wish to report the birth of David Wilson, who joined the Gene Camp family at 5415 Palos Verdes Blvd. March 7. Born at Torrance Memorial Hospital, he weighed 8 lbs. 4 ozs. Mr. and Mrs. John Klug and his mother, Mrs. Marie Mat-thes, were guests at the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hawkins of West Los Angeles at the First Christian Church there Sunday. The Woman's Council of the church, where Mrs. Hawkins has been a teacher for the past 20 years, sponsored the celebration. The honored couple was seated on a platform and the wedding was re-enacted, with young friends serving as the wedding party. Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins took the same vows they repeated 50 years ago, using the same ring.

A six-week canasta tournament was opened Friday evening at the Adult Recreation Center, 1318 Craven. Eight tables were entered in the competition. Tomorrow will be the last chance to enter.

The monthly birthday party for members was held Saturday with seven honorees. Three kinds of birthday cake were served to about 40 persons. The afternoon was spent playing cards.

T-Timers Enter Car in Sunday Races, Hope for Win this Week

By SUE BURK

Time certainly flies away from us, as you no doubt have witnessed by jumpy derby on Sunday last. If you will watch close this coming Sunday, March 25, you will see that one of the cars in the running is a T-Timer jalopy. These teen age boys have worked very hard in perfecting a car for the races, and where is there a better place to race than on the track? If you have a son that is 16 years of age or over and who possesses a driver's license, why not let him join the T-Timers Automobile Club? Better that he be working on his own or a club car, than to be out walking the streets after curfew.

Mrs. Shaw reports from the Seaside Elementary School that enrollment for kindergarten classes for the year of 1956-57 is now in process. Forms have been sent out, but if you haven't received your form, copy yet drop by Seaside School and pick up one of the enrollment slips from the office. Stipulations are that the child or children you are enrolling for kindergarten classes must be five years of age either on or before Dec. 1, 1956.

What does a young man or woman want as a career? I've heard many discussions on "Why can't a list of subjects be made out to fit the different career jobs?" Example—What certain subjects a high school student must take for a career there.

A visitor at the Barrow home recently was Mrs. Barrow's cousin, Ruth Straub, a Red Cross administrator from Louisville, Ky., who stopped by on her way down from the flooded areas around Tulsa City. Miss Straub spent most of the last three years in Europe on Red Cross duty.

Clarence Hopkins, 5614 Palos Verdes Blvd., is confined to Harbor General Hospital with bronchial pneumonia. If you want to send him a card, he is in Ward C6.

of medicine. My suggestion would be for the student and his or her parent to get together with the teacher or principal and making out his or her own list of subjects.

The March meeting of the Scout Mothers Club was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Naumann of Sharynne Lane, on Wednesday, March 14. Reba Drake and Billie Gaynor were welcomed into the club as new members. Sue Burk and Pauline Glass reported on the Valentine party given to the old ladies home in North Redondo. Plans were then made to take individual angel food cakes to the ladies for their Easter party, which will be held on or near Easter Sunday. Mothers present at the meeting to partake of chocolate cake and coffee and with many interesting discussions on the welfare of our children, were Alma Kissell, Janet Wood, Martha Kolbeck, Mabel Caudill, Reba Drake, Billie Gaynor, Sue Burk, Margaret Whyte, Madge Graham, Virginia Naumann, and Isabelle Gaul.

A new cry went up in Room 255 of the Queen of Angels Hospital on March 14. Such was credited to the new baby boy born to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Philip Milanowski weighed in at 7 lbs. 8 oz. Both mother, Diane, and son are doing well. We can't say anything for poor papa except he is a mighty swollen-chested fellow lately, and daughter, Susan, is too young herself to figure what's going on other than there is someone else who cries and gets part of mommy's attention. But, just wait until she realizes she has a new playmate, then we won't be able to keep her away from baby.

Charcoal and Pastel Sketches Promised at PTA May Carnival

By EM FRENCH

We thought that our neighbors would like to know that Mrs. Doris Westall Booth, of 348 Via Colusa, has kindly consented to give her time and talent for the Riviera PTA festival which is to be held at the El Retro Park, May 5, from 10 to 4 p.m. She will be present all day to make charcoal and pastel sketches of children and adults. Mrs. Booth's background is most interesting. She was born in Ashville, N. C., and started drawing at a very early age. After attending the University of Virginia she went on to become a Powers and Conover model in New York.

She attended Harbor Junior College and graduated with a degree in commercial art and architecture, then became associated with the Driftwood House in Manhattan Beach as designer and decorator consultant, during which time she designed tropical interiors, nautical furniture, and carpets.

Among her laurels is a blue ribbon won for her pastel portrait work in the Wilmington art exhibit. We feel most fortunate to have a fine artist such as Mrs. Booth lend her talent to our PTA festival.

And with further reference to the Riviera PTA carnival, Mrs. Gene Voorhes has this to say: "It's spring! So why don't you clean out that garage or basement or attic and turn over your 'white elephants' to us to sell at the PTA carnival May 5. We'll take vases, jewelry, antiques, old serapes (the carnival has a Mexican theme), or anything else you don't want, but someone else might. Please deliver your 'treasures' to 253 Calle de Madrid or 420 Via Los Miradores. We'd like everything turned in by May 3, so here's to bigger and better house cleaning."

Would you like to have an opportunity to buy fresh homemade baked goods, and at the same time assist the Boy Scouts' Cub Pack 718-C, in an effort to raise funds for its treasury is sponsoring a bake sale at the Frontier Market, Pacific Hwy. and Ave. F. Mothers are donating their best cakes, pies, cookies, and rolls for the sale, and all will be saran wrapped. Buy several and toss them in your freezer for future use! The date is Saturday, March 24, beginning at 10 a.m.

The Riviera PTA held its March meeting Wednesday, the 14th. The highlight of the evening was the Los Cancioneros Chorus, under the directorship of Don Bremner, and accom-president (ways and means), painted by Margaret Marilyn. As always, the Los Cancioneros Singers were wonderful! Incidentally, they announced their sixth annual concert to be held June 8 and 9, and it should be on your don't miss list.

Gordon Petri, musical director in the Riviera School, was introduced and four of his pupils, John Grimley, Christopher Davis, Charles Van Vleet, and Ted Van Hulsen entertained with a clarinet quartet and Conrad Beck, Bonnie Lewis, and Luile Ryon, made up a flute trio.

Mrs. Harvey (Betty) Epelman; fourth vice president (in charge of room mothers), Mrs. Rodney (Sherry) Freeman; recording secretary, Mrs. Frank (Dorothy) O'Connor; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Harold (Mary) Putsey; treasurer, Mr. Swinger, and historian, Mrs. Eugene (Helen) Eichler.
