

Young Named Supervisor Of Train Service for SP

Robert J. Young, Long Beach, has been appointed supervisor of train service for Southern Pacific Co. with offices in the Pacific Electric Bldg., Los Angeles.

Young has served the company as traveling passenger agent in the Long Beach district since July 1, 1955. Prior to that he held various positions in the passenger department. He joined SP in 1939 as passenger agent in the district office, Los Angeles.

Successing Young in the Long Beach position will be William O. Cooper, of Huntington Park, according to the announcement by J. H. Prussel, Jr., passenger agent and public relations manager at Los Angeles.

TUSD Employee At Statewide Food Affair

The third annual state conference of the California School Food Service Assn., now being held in Santa Monica and will conclude tomorrow.

Among those attending the conference from this area is Jean Long, cafeteria supervisor for the Torrance Unified School District, who holds the post of recording secretary for the Southern Section of the group. The organization, whose membership is composed of school cafeteria supervisors, managers and personnel throughout the state, is maintaining headquarters in the Miramar Hotel for the convales, which began yesterday.

Exhibits at Samohi exhibits and daily sessions are being held at Santa Monica High School.

Guest speaker at the opening session was Jack Holland, public relations director for the Farmers and Merchants National Bank of Los Angeles. He spoke on "Getting Along With People."

Banquet Tonight Tonight's official banquet will feature the installation of officers, with Mrs. Kathryn Waggoner, director of cafeterias for the Burbank schools, slated to be installed as president.

Kelen Crane, cafeteria head for the Los Angeles City Schools, will be mistress of ceremonies.

Tomorrow morning's session will deal with emergency mass feeding and the part the school cafeteria plays in civil defense.

positions in Palm Springs, Santa Ana and San Bernardino as well as his most recent post as passenger agent in the Los Angeles district passenger office.

He will report to George A. Baldwin, district passenger and public relations representative at Long Beach, with offices at 303 Locust Ave.
