Harvey Fields To Officiate At Temple Menorah

In keeping with the religious committee's plans for having a guest rabbi each fourth Friday night, Temple Menorah, 112 1/2 N. Catalina, will have Harvey Fields, youth director of the University Synagogue, Los Angeles, officiate at religious services at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

His sermon for the evening is entitled "A Hidden Treasure" and is of interest to all as it concerns the Passover holiday, "The Festival of Freedom," which Jews all over the world are celebrating during the eight days of March 28-April 3.

Field also presided at the traditional Passover service and dinner which took place on the eve of the First Night of Passover Monday at Temple Menorah. About 150 persons, members and friends of the congregation, were on hand to take part in the important holiday traditions.

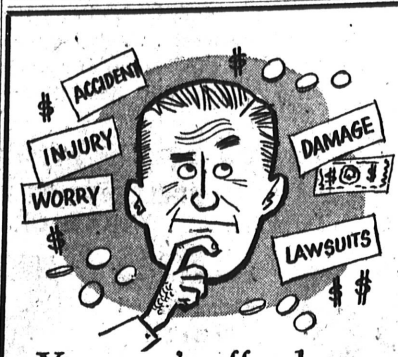

Passover commemorates the release of the Jews from bondage and slavery in Egypt with the help of their leader, Moses. It is during this holiday that the Jews eat unleavened bread "matzo" to symbolize the haste in which the Jews departed from their oppressors.

Resurrection Is Subject Of Sermon

First in a series of special sermons at the Torrance Church of Christ will be delivered Easter Sunday morning by Minister R. E. Prout. It will deal with the power of God, which brought Jesus out of the grave.

The evening sermon will be called "In The Beginning." This sermon will be designed to give a starting push to the gospel meeting to be held at the church each evening for 10 days, beginning April 1.

Lutherans Fete Easter
Five special Easter services will be held this Sunday at the Torrance First Lutheran Church. Services will be held at 6:30, 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m. and 7 p.m.
Sermons will be preached by Pastor Paul Wenke and Pastor Walter Behrens.
