

Local Man To Enter Paintings in Thread at Annual Hobby, Art Show

One of the outstanding features of the upcoming Hobby, Art and Flower Show is the participation of a local man in the thread art category. James Oswald, 2526 Sierra St., Torrance, is the artist.

Oswald, a local painter, has been in the hobby for some time. He has been painting for some time and has been in the hobby for some time. He has been painting for some time and has been in the hobby for some time.

All the stitching is done in thread also. There is a variety of 24 colors in his two large pictures and he uses all two-strand thread in place of the one-strand thread used in most thread art.

Mr. Oswald, in discussing his hobby said the largest picture cost about $2, including all the material.

Mr. Oswald's latest project on which he is now working is a picture of a mother deer and fawn.

The entry deadline is close at hand. All persons wishing to enter the forthcoming Hobby, Art and Flower Show are asked to contact the following entry committee: Mrs. Gordon Jones or Mrs. Gordon Russell, hobby and art division; Mrs. Edith Russell or Mrs. D. W. Quigley, Torrance Terrace Garden Club; or Mrs. A. W. Adkins, Beach Park Garden Club.

The entry deadline is all divisions at April 25, commencing the week end of carrying white tulle; Miss Rose Marie Barbosa in coral and carrying pink tulle; Miss Carol Burge in pale green net and carrying yellow tulle and Miss Elena Tavera in yellow net and carrying yellow tulle.

Linda Deborah Ellen Gotts, cousin of the bride, in white sash, a replica of the bride's gown, was flower girl, and Kenneth Wolf, young brother of the bridegroom, carried the rings.

Arthur Steele served as best man and ushers were Carl Gots and Norman Clark.

After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The couple then left for a honeymoon in northern California before going to San Francisco to make their home.

The bride was graduated from Nativity School here and attended St. Anthony's High School in Long Beach.

The bridegroom was graduated from Compton High School and is now serving with the United States Navy stationed in San Francisco. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wolf of Compton.
