

IT WAS A HAPPY TIME... at the Charles Jackson home, 3221 Crickwood Ave., Lomita, on Saturday, March 31. The Jacksons had driven to Washington and brought Mrs. Jackson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Harnden, home with them. On that Saturday the couple celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary and Mr. Harnden's 83rd birthday. Pictured are (from left) Mrs. Hollene Flamingo, daughter; Mrs. Denas Wall, daughter; Mrs. Harnden, Mr. Harnden, Mrs. Jackson, and Bill Kinyon, grandson. In the front are Joy Kinyon, granddaughter, and Gail Feeney, great-granddaughter.

Parents Here to Observe 60th Wedding Anniversary

Two happy anniversaries were commemorated at a family reunion held Easter Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jackson of 3221 Crickwood Ave. The 60th wedding anniversary of the parents of Mrs. Jackson—Mr. and Mrs. William Harnden of Eastwood, Ocaso Island, Wash.—and the 83rd birthday of Mr. Harnden. The date for both events is March 31.

The honorees, who have lived on the island of the San Juan group during their married lives, are on a visit here. They have five daughters, eight grandchildren, and seven great-grandchildren. Offering dual congratulations to the couple were children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren which included three other daughters living in the harbor area: Mrs. Denas Wall, Mrs. Charles Bain and Mrs. Hollene Flamingo; four grand-children, Mrs. Clifford Peeney, William Cole, Jay and Dale Kinyon, the Jackson children and one great-grandchild, Gail Feeney.

1955 Officers Fill Stations On Their Special OES Night

"Nineteen hundred fifty-five Night" was observed by Torrance chapter 380, Order of the Eastern Star, at its meeting last Thursday evening in the new Masonic Temple on Cabrillo Ave. Earl Wells, junior past patron, called the meeting to order and Phyllis Peverly, junior past matron, presided. All of the stations were filled by their 1955 corps of officers.

Special escort was given to Dorothy Fyken, worthy matron, and Edward Morgan, worthy patron, who presided during the business portion of the meeting.

Myrna Bams, past matron of Playa Linda chapter, who served as deputy grand matron in 1955, was escorted and presented as were the following 1955 worthy matrons and patrons: Virginia and Beulah Baker of Playa Linda chapter; Ellen Zanklich and Paul Burns of Point Firmin chapter; Doris Savages and Art Russell of Wilmington chapter; Stella Riedel of Carnation chapter; Merle Savages of San Pedro Harbor chapter; Mabel Coffey of Fuchsia chapter; Louise Tyson of Santa Monica chapter; and Nellie Richmond from Pennsylvania. Eight past matrons and three past patrons of Torrance chapter and two past matrons and four past patrons of this and other grand jurisdictions were escorted and presented.

Vincent Viellenave, acting associate patron, introduced the many visitors on the sidelines. They came from Santa Monica, El Segundo, Hermosa Beach, Los Angeles, Inglewood, San Pedro, Lomita, Redondo Beach and Wilmington, Calif. Out-of-state visitors came from Alaska, Pennsylvania, Michigan, South Dakota, Indiana, and Ohio.

Vivian Cook, past matron, was chairman of the social hour which followed the meeting and she had Ethyl Peverly and Lea Wells as co-chairmen.

The dining room was transformed into a beautiful garden setting, each table decorated to carry out the theme of the evening. Pastel flowers formed centerpieces, arranged in small garden carts. The head table had a centerpiece of a large Easter basket, and the center attraction was a huge cake made by Ethyl Peverly, a perfect replica of a beautiful basket filled with spring flowers. Delicious refreshments were served by the chairmen and committee composed of Jennie Deisigne, Carol Fisher, Rose Schmidt, Elizabeth Allen, Helen Carpenter, Frances Peverly, Fern Mead, Ruth Hardin, Garnett Satterfield, Mavis Cook, Eunice Crabtree, Julia Junior, Dorothy Hedrick, Judy Cook, Florence McEwen, Josephine Orend and Frederick Cook.

BACK TO SCHOOL

Spending the holiday week end with their families here were the following students of University of California at Santa Barbara: Marlene Schildmeyer, Sandra Katilla, Sharon Anderson and Mary Boyer. All have returned to their studies at school.
