COUNCIL SERVES DINNER MAY 5

Catholic Council of Women of St. Catherine Labourer Church will sponsor a ham dinner on May 5 from 5 to 8 p.m. in the parish hall, 3346 Redondo Beach Road.

Chairmen for the event will be Meses, Edward Martin, Frank Reccisa, Joseph Remlinger, John Sargent, R. Johnson and S. Cohen.

IN AN ELEGANT ATMOSPHERE... Members of the committee met to plan the Seventh Annual Homes Tour of the Palos Verdes Peninsula which will take place this week end, Saturday and Sunday afternoons. Pictured are, from left, Mrs. C. N. Rucker, tour chairman, Mrs. Lewis J. Ewing, brochure advertising chairman and Mrs. Manley Natland, chairman of the hostess committee. The picture was taken in the home of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Bradley. The two huge swans are the originals from a circus wagon. They are oyster white and gold and hang on an oyster white wall. Mr. Bradley is the manufacturer of amusement park equipment and did much of the art designs for Disneyland. Tickets for the tour and tea will be available at the Fountain of Neptune in Palos Verdes Plaza.

Annual Palos Verdes Homes Tour Scheduled for Saturday, Sunday

Homes of distinction for which the Palos Verdes Peninsula is famous will be opened for the seventh annual Homes Tour to be held Saturday and Sunday afternoons, May 5 and 6. Five beautiful homes are listed for the tour which this year is under the sponsorship of the St. Francis Episcopal parish. The tours will begin at noon and continue until 5 p.m. Five homes will be visited and tourists will return to the patio at St. Francis for tea.

Mrs. Philip Kearney is serving as homes advisor. Mrs. C. Nelson Rucker, chairman of the tour, and Mrs. Stevens McAllister, co-chairman of the event.

The homes selected for this year's show have been chosen for their distinctive architectural detail, attractive landscaping and interior decorative appeal.

The first home to be visited is that of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hutchinson, 406 Via Obispo. Tourists will have an exceptional opportunity of seeing . . .

only this pretentious Victorian house but the antique collection of its owners. The collection includes Venetian blown glass, amethyst cross glass, cranberry glass as well as an antique "Gone With the Wind" lamp and other collector items.

Other homes on the itinerary are those of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Bradley, 749 Via Sonoma; Dr. and Mrs. Edgar L. Arndt, 516 Paseo Del Mar, and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Adams, 30206 Palos Verdes Dr. West.

An extension phone makes every day Mother's Day

A good way to show your appreciation of Mother is to give her something that she'll use and treasure not only on Mother's Day but on every day in the year. Something like an extension phone for her kitchen which will make every day easier. Something which points up your thoughtfulness every time she makes a call.

An extension in color makes an ideal Mother's Day gift. It's practical and glamorous, too. And each extension costs only a dollar a month, after a one-time installation charge. We'll gift-wrap, deliver and connect it to suit your convenience. To order, call your telephone business office.
