Evelyn Carr

Evelyn Carr PTA will honor their mothers at an annual dinner to be held at a local restaurant, Thursday, May 3, at 6:30 p.m. Chairman of the event is Mrs. Richard Hubert who this week announced reservations were being made by Mrs. William Spie for those desiring to attend. Theme for the evening is "A Night at the Ballet" and the décor for programs and tables will carry the show as well as the dinners. The dinnering committee consists of Mrs. J. A. Jensen, Mrs. J. R. Sander, Mrs. Robert Thomas, and Mrs. William Spie.

Kindergarten Roundup will be held at the school Thursday, May 3, and May 10 for those wishing to enroll children who will enter kindergarten in September. A child must be five years of age before December 2 and a proof of birth is requested. Mrs. Daniel Kluda is in charge of arrangements. New entrants and children will be greeted by members of Carr PTA. Refreshments will be served on the patio. If a physical examination for the child at the time of enrollment is desired, contact the school for the necessary forms.

The Eighth Grade Graduation Party sponsored by the parents will be held at the Torrance YWCA on Thursday, June 14, 7 to 10 p.m. The following committees were appointed: general chairman, Mrs. Reynolds; refreshments, Mrs. Schwartz; program, Mr. Glander; chaperones, Mrs. Berry; transportation, Mr. Schwartz; decorations, Mrs. Glander; and clean-up, Mrs. Northrup. Parents are asked to assist. The April 17 meeting of the Evelyn Carr PTA Board was held at the home of Mrs. Richard McDonald. The recommen-

Meadow Park

Meadow Park Parent-Teacher Assn. recently held its monthly meeting at the Meadow Park School.

Principal Herbert Farris announced that preparations were under way for the permanent new buildings at Meadow Park. The new buildings will consist of three wings of five classrooms each and two kindergarten rooms for a total of 17 classrooms. The plans also call for a multi-purpose room and an administrative unit.

At the present time Meadow Park is in its second year of operation. Facilities at present consist of twelve bungalow rooms.

The theme "Leaders for Tomorrow" was carried out by the students who participated in the program.

Musical selections by the third grade Tonnetet Ensemble included "Mary Had a Little Lamb," "Jingle Bells," and "Duet."

The school orchestra under the direction of Gordon Petrie played "Some Day My Prince Will Come," "Mexican Dance," and "When You Wish Upon a Star."

Donald Cradell explained home economics and shop courses in the Torrance School System. He also introduced Georgette Holowell who narrated a fashion show given by the 7th and 8th grade home economics classes. The boys from the 7th and 8th grades put on a shop display.

At a recent board meeting Mrs. Del Rogers was selected to alternate for the state convention May 9, 10, and 11.

The next monthly meeting will be Wednesday, May 16, at Meadow Park School. Students from Torrance High School and Meadow Park Elementary School will be guest speakers. There will also be installation of officers.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Neil Larson and the 7th grade room mothers.

North High

North High Executive Board members met at 10 a.m. Tuesday, April 17 at the school. Mrs. A. E. Cowie, president was in charge.

Guest of the board was Miss Judy Okada, who received checks from the PTA for the Student Body's share and the Senior Class' share of the profits from the recent Curb Painting Project.

Announcements of the district convention in Long Beach, April 26, and annual Torrance Council Breakfast to be May 23, were given. Miss J. Sanders, C. Thompson, J. Rogando, A. E. Cowie, and Mr. Ahee will attend the district convention representing this unit.

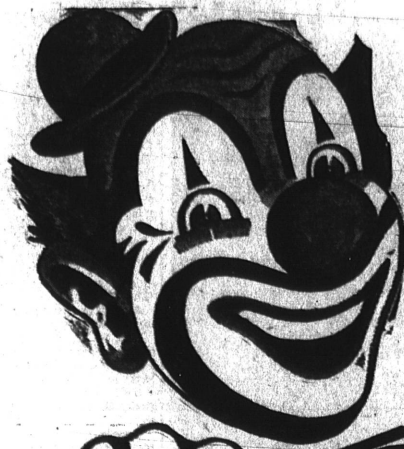

A discussion was held on how to make the public more aware of the scholarships and fellowships that are available to members of the "Future Teachers" club, at school. Miss Sanders reported on a "Volunteers for Children" meeting to be held Thursday, at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. J. E. Allison, to provide workers for Harbor General Hospital Children's ward.

In the fancy work booth there will be an array of handmade articles, suitable for Mother's Day presents. There will also be a plant booth and a baked goods booth offering cakes and pies.

For the grounds the rummage sale, country store, and white elephant booths will be of interest. A variety of games and prizes for the youngsters will be available. Balloons and birds will add to the carnival spirit.

IT'S CARNIVAL TIME... at Fern-Greenwood School. And tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock the affair will officially open. A hot dinner will be served as well as snacks. Games and fun for all is promised. In the carnival spirit are Brian Simmons with his mother, Mrs. G. E. Simmons, and Mrs. W. E. Moore with Tim Moore.
