

Beau Jardin Hears Talk 'On Herbs'

Beau Jardin Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. George Smith, 22516 Warmside Ave., on May 9, with Mrs. John Regan as co-hostess.

Mrs. Smith was speaker for the evening, and gave a very interesting talk on "Herbs and Their Uses." She had many examples of potted herbs to illustrate her talk, and gave them to the group to take home. The refreshments carried out the theme of her talk. Chicken was served, which had been cooked with herbs, and dessert was Italian pound cake topped with spiced whipped cream.

It was announced that Mmes. L. D. Burt, William Cressy, and Robert Hill would attend the California Garden Club's, Inc. convention banquet on May 31, at the Biltmore Hotel in Los Angeles, and would help to decorate the tables for the banquet.

It was decided to enter the flower show given by the Lomita Fuchsia Society on June 2 and 3. Mrs. Leo Hayes will be chairman of the committee for the club's entry. Mrs. Hayes was also appointed librarian for the club.

Mrs. William Adkins won the door prize, an African violet plant.

Present at the meeting were Mmes. L. D. Burt, Robert Hill, William Cressy, Leo Hayes,

'Love in Bloom' Is Theme Of Greenthumbers Show June 8-9

"Love in Bloom" will be the theme of the second annual Flower Show to be staged by the Greenthumbers Garden club on June 8 and 9 at the Seaside school auditorium. There will be no admission charge and the club extends an invitation to all flower lovers to attend the show. Hours for the show are Friday, June 8, 4 to 9 p.m. and Saturday, June 9, 9 a.m. until noon.

The Greenthumbers' club is emphasizing its show theme has pointed out that a special section will be reserved this year for entries of a bridal or wedding nature in keeping with the month of June.

Rules governing the show are: Only cut flowers, potted plants and specimen blooms must be grown by the exhibitor; no artificial flowers; the committee will not be responsible for loss or damage to materials or containers. First, second and third place ribbons will be awarded under each classification; trophies will be awarded; commercial artists, floor displays, and potted plants must be made between 6 and 9 p.m. Thursday the 7th. Floral arrangements, cut flowers and specimen blooms may be entered between 8 and 10 a.m. Friday the 8th of June.

Exhibitors may not remove entries until the close of the show. There will be no charge for exhibiting. There will be no admission from 10 a.m. to noon on Friday in order that the judges may award the ribbons and trophies. Anyone interested in the Greenthumbers' Garden club or the flower show may contact Mrs. William Fitzgerald.
