

Riviera Girl Scouts Celebrate Court of Awards, Promotions

The Hollywood Riviera Girl Scout Court of Awards was held Friday evening, June 1, at the Torrance Civic Auditorium. Mrs. Rex D. Hayes, district chairman, welcomed parents and friends to this annual event of Scouting, and introduced the speakers and events of the program.

High point of the evening was the presentation of the Curved Bar rank, highest award of Intermediate Scouting, to the twelve members of Troop 110. Mrs. Emil Huskamp, troop leader, explained the significance of this rank and made the presentation to troop members Lynn Burman, Anne Davis, Joelyn Farrell, Ada Dot Hayes, Jean Huskamp, Sandra Kratzer, Joyce Law, Katherine Moore, Adele Mullen, Ann Farmer, Lynn Satterlee and Sherrill Smith. Mrs. Douglas Farmer, co-leader, assisted Mrs. Huskamp in awarding proficiency badges earned during the past year.

Eleven Promoted First Class Rank was achieved by members of Troop 82: Louan Dorfman, Sandra Ford, Sandra French, Jan Geisler, Donna Gillis, Joan Grimley, Carol Lendall, Marie Lettner, Sharon Seahorn, Joan Smilie, and Maritza Walpole. Mrs. James Bernard, troop leader, spoke briefly on the meaning of this rank and, with her co-leader, Mrs. J. D. Smith,

More school news: "What to Do With Your Child Over the Summer," will be the topic to be discussed by Virginia Foyle, past director of the Torrance Cooperative Nursery, at tonight's meeting of the Coast Nursery School, at 7:30 in Room 5 of the Riviera School. Elections will also be held.

The Coast Nursery School, a non-profit cooperative nursery, under the Adult Education Department of the Board of Education of Torrance, is now accepting applications for the fall term. There are still some openings, but since the enrollment is limited to 24 children, anyone interested would be wise to contact the membership chairman, Mrs. Austin Woodward, FRontier 5-6390, as soon as possible.

Troop 59, newly invested as Girl Scouts on June 1, left Saturday morning for their first overnight outing—spent at the private camp of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Christensen in Idyllwild. The girls were thrilled with swimming, horseback riding, and the deer they saw. The girls who made the trip were Fay Anastassiou, Susan Beck, Carol Bonnette, Tanya Dobos, Sharon Gibbs, Linda Hayes, Nancy Kelly, Peggy McElroy, Christine Veltman, and Karen Koester; from Troop 206, Jacqueline Bratt, Nancy Lee McGrady, Valerie Shidler, Susie Schindler, Cynthia Warf, Anna Schwartz, and Bandy Cobabe.

Adults accompanying were Mrs. Albert Kowster, and Mrs. Lamar Bonnette, leaders and co-leaders of Troop 37, Mrs. Ivan McElroy, Mrs. Fred D. Gibbs Jr., Mrs. William Blair, Mrs. Harry Schwartz, Mrs. Amby Schindler, Mrs. John Shidler, and Mr. and Mrs. David Sokoloff. Guests included Danjelle Dobos, Marlene Koester, Nancy Blair, and Nancy Gibbs.

Mrs. Joe Hornbeck was host.

ess last week to Mrs. MacLachlan and Miss Thelma MacLachlan of Hartford, Conn., and Mrs. Charles Kennedy and three of her five children, from Monterey. Of course, the children had to see Disneyland, and the adults took in just about everything in Southern California.

Explaining each step of Scouting were additional short talks by Mrs. Lee Scott on the Second Class Rank; Mrs. Thomas von Blankenburg, Merit Badges; and Mariner Van Dudley, Senior Scouting.

The 38 members of the two fifth-grade troops, 144 and 147, earned their Second Class Rank. Mrs. Everett Bissell, leader, and co-leaders Mrs. J. Garland Brown and Mrs. W. C. Bowman made the award of ranks and badges to Troop 144. Troop 147 received their awards from leader, Mrs. Lee Scott and co-leader Mrs. M. L. Barger.

The many new skills acquired by the members of the three sixth grade troops were shown in the wide variety of proficiency badges awarded to Troop 233 by leaders, Mrs. Hewitt Coleman and Mrs. Marvin Jones; to Troop 98 by leaders, Mrs. Curtis Cool and Mrs. Edward Greenblatt; to Troop 113 by leaders Mrs. L. E. Gilbert, Mrs. William King and Mrs. Ralph Borgeson.

At the conclusion of the program refreshments of punch and cookies were served by Mrs. J. M. Ogborn, assisted by Mrs. Judith Noell. Mariner assistants were Barbara Bower, Gail Bowman, Jan Dudley, Sonia Hershney, Barbara Hummel and April Satterlee, all of the S.S. Saratoga.

Student Pilot Crashes Plane

A student pilot received minor injuries Thursday when her plane went into a ground loop while landing at Torrance Municipal Airport.

Maxine Weiss of Redondo Beach was flying a Cessna 140 belonging to Collins-Dietrich Air Services, operators of the airport, when the accident occurred. She was taken to a private medical center following treatment by her husband, a physician.

Airport Operator Ed Dietrich said Mrs. Weiss was making her second solo flight when the plane looped. The plane suffered some structural damage when it wheel strut was torn off in the accident. The propeller and wing tip also were damaged.
