

Plane Tries Force Landing At Parking Lot

A private plane crashed today at the Los Angeles International Airport parking lot after the pilot attempted to force-land the aircraft because of engine trouble.

The plane, a Cessna 170B, was piloted by a man who was unable to get the engine started. He attempted to force-land the plane in the parking lot.

CRASH LANDING—This Cessna airplane belly-landed today Saturday in the Douglas parking lot after the pilot decided to force land it when the engine quit. The pilot, Albert Blake, was unhurt. The plane was severely damaged.

The aircraft was registered to E. E. Brown, 4818 E. 12th St., Los Angeles.

Los Angeles police said the plane was flying at a low altitude when it crashed. The pilot was not hurt.

Herbs for Barbecuing May Be Grown Easily in State

Barbecuing outdoors is a favorite leisure pastime here in California. Many gardeners eat their meals outdoors many weeks during the summer, preparing various types of meats over barbecue broilers and pits.

These gardeners have a choice of herbs to use. In the past, they were limited to a few herbs that were commonly grown in the state.

Today, however, many gardeners are growing a wide variety of herbs in their gardens.

Some of the herbs that are easy to grow in California include:

- Chives
- Basil
- Parsley
- Thyme
- Oregano
- Rosemary
- Sage
- Bay leaves

These herbs can be used to flavor a variety of meats, including beef, pork, and chicken.

Suggestions for Seaside Plants Given to Exasperated Gardeners

Little along the Pacific Coast (Albion grandifolia) is a very pleasant, thousands of small, bell-shaped flowers, which are white with yellow centers.

For this reason, the California Association of Nurseries would like to help out all exasperated gardeners with several suggestions for seaside plants.

The following are some of the suggestions:

- Beach Pea (Lathyrus teretifolius): A hardy, trailing vine with small, bell-shaped flowers.
- Sea Purslane (Portulaca oleraceae): A low-growing, succulent plant with small, round leaves and small flowers.

Two Injured in Plane Crash; Women of Moose Hold Fete

Two women were injured today when a small airplane crashed on the Pacific Coast.

The women were on a flight from Los Angeles to San Francisco. The plane crashed shortly after takeoff.

The women were rescued by a nearby boat. They were taken to a hospital where they are recovering from their injuries.

The Women of the Moose are holding a fete to raise money for the victims of the crash.

$300,000

for more telephones

This is the immense amount of money we plan to spend for expansion each working day for the next 3 years...

$22,500 an hour... more than $90 a minute!

It took 27 years to reach the $300 millions we now have invested in the 100 California communities in which we operate. Now this huge investment will be nearly doubled in just 36 months.

The approximate $227,000,000 we plan to spend by mid-1956 for expanded facilities will be a substantial contribution to California's economy. In addition to this amount, will be other millions of dollars we will spend for operations, maintenance and taxes during this 3 year period.
