

Miss Carol Armstrong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Armstrong, 1633 Juniper, will enter Fresno State college this fall to major in education. She was in Fresno last week for entrance exams.

Miss Armstrong, who was graduated from Marymount High School last spring, will make her home in Fresno with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Petron.

Social World

EDNA CLOYD, Editor

JULY 29, 1956

TORRANCE HERALD

Seven

MRS. THEODORE CARRINGTON
... Recites Vows

Theodore Carringtons, Wed July 21, Are Now At Home

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Clifford Carrington, Jr., who were married Saturday evening at the Torrance First Baptist Church July 21 at 8 p.m., have returned from a honeymoon at Grand Canyon. Mrs. Carrington is the former Leona Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson, 2220 254th St., Lomita.

As the wedding guests gathered Oscar Walton, organist, accompanied Lee Hughes who sang "Hand in Hand," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Heading the entourage were the three bridesmaids, all wearing bouffant gowns of poudre blue crystallette. They were Misses Gail Ann Wright, Delores Hudson and Eileen Burrell. Their bouquets were showers of pale pink tuberous begonias.

Miss Julia Montgomery was the maid of honor. Her gown was of pale pink crystallette and she carried a shower of dark pink begonias.

The bride came to the altar with her father. Her wedding gown was of candlelight satin and French imported lace. A pearl crown held her illusion veil and she carried white orchids and valley lilies on a white prayer book.

Little Ruthie Kittell, in a rose crystalline gown, dropped petals in the path of the bride.

Mr. Carrington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Carrington, 220 Via Alameda, Redondo Beach, chose his brother, Robert Carrington, as best man. Ushers were Bob Hammack, Bob Broadus and Val Buff.

The Rev. Nathan Bond officiated at the marriage and Mrs. Pat Carrington registered the guests.

A reception followed at the church and the couple left for their honeymoon. They will reside in the bay area.

The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High School and the Harbor Junior College.

The bridegroom was graduated from Inglewood High School and El Camino Junior College.

FORMER RESIDENTS VISITING HERE

Mr. and Mrs. James Giles and two daughters, Judy and Susan, of Eglin Air Force Base, Fla., are spending three months here visiting Mrs. Giles' sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sprout, 2260 W. 239th St. They are also visiting with Mrs. Giles' parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Ramer of Long Beach, former Torrance residents. Staff Sergeant Giles will arrive the latter part of August to spend some time here.

Adams-Milford Nuptials Are Read in Lovely Home Service

Miss Dee Etta Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Adams of Hawthorne, was beautiful in her wedding gown of white lace when she exchanged her vows with Marcus E. Milford of Torrance. The ceremony was solemnized on Friday evening, July 13, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Robertson, of 221st St.

Mr. Adams escorted his daughter to the improvised altar where he gave her in marriage. Complementing the white lace gown was a shoulder length illusion veil held by a pearl tiara. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, and stephanotis tied with streamers.

Miss Dee Anna Boulanger,

Visiting Here From London

Mrs. Louisa-Johnson of London, England, has arrived for a three-month visit with her daughter, Mrs. William Koerting, and three granddaughters of 17115 Wilton Pl.

Mrs. Johnson, who was here six years ago to visit her daughter who was then living in Lawndale, is amazed at the growth of the local area.

Mrs. Koerting, who came to America 10 years ago, visited England four years ago. Besides her mother, she has a father and sister in London.

Lioness Club Board Meets

New board of the Lioness Club met Wednesday evening at the home of the president, Mrs. Abe Robinson, 111 Via Sego, to plan the program for the coming year.

After the business meeting refreshments were served. Board members present were Mmes. William King, Fred Boren, Lowell Spring, Ruel Moulton, A. F. R. Ewalt, Pete Radisch, Mott Farrell and A. B. McTee.

The first meeting of the club is set for Aug. 17 with the time and place to be announced later.

FUN AND FUND PICNIC AUG. 6

Fun and Fund Club of the Torrance Rebekah Lodge will hold a picnic in Torrance Park on Monday, Aug. 6, at 5:30. This dinner is open to all Rebekahs and their friends and families. Following the dinner a short business meeting will be held and this will be followed by games.

The president, Mrs. Madeline Hand, has announced that the club is progressing nicely with the plans for the bazaar to be held in November.

A kidnap breakfast was held on Wednesday morning, July 25, at the home of Mrs. Irma Powers with a good attendance. Proceeds from this breakfast will be used to purchase materials to be worked up for the bazaar. Mrs. Fronia Branagh is in charge of this activity.

(Gladys Tippitt)

REMEMBER WHEN . . . these thespians of the 1946 Torrance High School class brought down the house with their interpretation of "Little Women" as the class play. They are (from left, front row) Vivian Oliver, Dorothy

O'Brien, Richard Wimberly, Juanita Quick, Lois Severn and June Johnstone. Back row (from left): A. T. Young, Sandra Ross, Ben Poorbaugh, Kenny Kessen. Several of these actors of '46 were present at the recent reunion.

Woman's Club Board Plans Agenda; Ratifies Chairmen

First meeting of the executive board of the Torrance Woman's Club for the new club year was held Wednesday morning, July 18, at the home of the new president, Mrs. L. A. McCoy, on Torrance Blvd.

At this time, programs, ways and means, and membership projects were discussed.

Ratification of standing committees and chairmen for the year were announced as follows: Mrs. V. D. Benard, assistant treasurer; Mrs. D. J. Thomsen, assistant third vice president; Mrs. W. C. Moyer and Mrs. R. E. Shaw, assistant reservations; Mrs. M. J. Beale, assistant year book; Mrs. John Oursler and Mrs. Ralph McNeil, bridge section; Mrs. Howard Wood and Mrs. S. J. Dunhouse, child welfare; Mrs. John Thuss and Mrs. H. C. Sandberg, decorations, and Mrs. W. C. Boswell, drama.

Others were Mrs. M. A. Bannan, golf section; Mrs. K. D. Figgins, historian; Mrs. W. I. Laughon and Mrs. Raymond Richards, hospitality; Mrs. James Burchett, music; Mrs. J. Parke Montague, membership; Mrs. R. J. Prout, assistant membership, and Mrs. J. P. Bay, Jr., president's aide.

Mrs. R. A. Bingham, Mrs. E. L. Cook and Mrs. J. A. Eisenbrandt will make up the program committee and Mrs. A. G. Solomon will serve as registrar, assisted by Mrs. W. C. Silence.

Mrs. W. I. Laughon will continue as song leader and Mrs.

Entertain Friends In New Home

Col. Colonel and Mrs. PAUL H. Nickel entertained at an open house Sunday afternoon, July 22, from 4 until 8 in their new home at 25226 Tandem Way in the Waveria area.

Col. Nickel retired from the United States Army one year ago after completing 29 years of duty. He returned from service in France, and built his home at the site of the Nickel's Poultry Ranch.

Friends who called during the afternoon to wish the Nickels' luck in their new home included Messrs. and Mmes. Don Matthews, Nin Wood, J. A. Beasley, Joe Bellante, B. P. Pendleton, Maze Moton, Jack Sakaye, Herb Jackson, Ed Nickel, Fred Kita, Cliff Cooper, Dave Lanner, Virgil Hancock, Robert Sleeth, Ritsuo Ho, M. M. Mitchell, John Chiu-dao, Chris Sorensen, Bob Ke-kuno, Jack Brown, Frank Vajo, Nathan Gordon, Tom Jones, Mr. Stuart Rose, and Dr. and Mrs. Wilmet J. Labit.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Thomas of Anaheim, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pike of Garden Grove, and Madame Jacqueline Thomas and daughter, Michelle Lemate of Bordeaux, France. Col. and Mrs. Nickel were given shrubbery and garden furniture for their patio.

Torrance High Classmates of 1946 In Gala Reunion at Club Alondra

They had fun . . . and a lot of water had run under that "proverbial bridge," members of the Torrance High School graduating summer and winter classes of 1946 discovered when they gathered on Saturday evening, July 14, at Club Alondra for a reunion.

"Do you remember" was the popular quotation for the evening and then, of course, there was the current issue of "how many children do you have now," "where are you living" and "whatever became of Sally and Joe," etc.

Beta Sigma Phis Attend Breakfast At Disneyland

Torrance was well represented at the Southern California Council of Beta Sigma Phi breakfast meeting on Sunday, July 15, in the Gourmet room of the Disneyland hotel as guests of the Southeast area council.

The theme "A Day of Fantasy" was carried out in the table decorations, "Dumbo the Elephant" programs, and hostesses were attired as Alice of Wonderland and other Land of Fantasy characters.

Guest speaker was Dr. J. W. St. Gene, president of the cystic fibrosis foundation, who is doing research on cystic fibrosis at the Children's hospital in Los Angeles.

Making the trip to Disneyland from the South Bay area council were: Mmes. Joe Banks, Wayne Crane, John D'Ornelas, Frances Goulart, Jack Hadley, Don Heaney, William Swisher, Joseph Wolfe, Harry Osborne and Betty Reinhart of the Omicron Pi chapter of Torrance.

From neighboring chapters were Mmes. Stephen Nicely, Ernest Sommersville and Dorothy Stearns, Pi Phi, Manhattan Beach; Mmes. Donald Dawson, Dave Dawson, Walter Brown, John Kestle, Lester Mayfield, Donald Moore, Palmer Hakala and Ray Jennings, Rho Xi, Lawndale, and Mmes. Carl Andress and William Raines, Lambda Eta, South Bay.

OFFICIAL VISITS JOB'S BETHEL

Mrs. Edna Babcock, deputy, made her first official visit to the Torrance Bethel of Job's Daughters on July 17.

Initiation was held for the following new members, Donna Mangoli, Toni Mangoli, Deane Simonian, Loretta Robinson, Gwendolyn Pattishall, Diane Haddox, Barbara Chase, Janice Jackson, Susan Welty, Gloria Holland, Nancy Hornbeck and Jacqueline Scheur.

Following the meeting refreshments were served.

ARRIVE HOME

Mrs. Robert E. Murphy and son Bobby returned last Sunday evening from a month's vacation in South Dakota. In Seneca they visited with Mrs. Murphy's mother and in Pierre they were guests of other relatives. The trip was made by plane.

AT NEW YORK CONVENTION . . . Dr. Virginia Tyler of Gardena left by plane Saturday morning for New York City where she will represent the Torrance-Gardena Soroptimist club at the American Federation of Soroptimists convention in session the first of the week at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. Dr. Tyler will also attend the International Soroptimist confab the latter part of the week, returning home Aug. 12. Dr. Tyler is a charter member of the local club and serves as director. She is also president of the Beta chapter, Unclon Alpha Dental society.

SHORT HAIRDOS, LONGER SKIRTS AND PIPE SMOKING . . . were but a few of the many changes they noticed when 1946 classmates gathered for a reunion. Pictured hashing over old times are from left Wanda Moore, Ste-

art, Robert Stewart, Shirley Cox Crawford, James Crawford, Melvin Miller, Kenny Lockman, Naomi Edwards Lockman. Second picture, from left, Bill McLeod, Jean McLeod and George Fisher. Seated Doug and Sue