FOR SUNDAY SHOPPERS

STATEMENT OF POLICY

Some months ago the Automobile Dealers of Los Angeles County voted to close their establishments on Sundays, certain legal holidays, and also to maintain certain other conditions and wages in the interest of better business ethics and employee relationship. To this end, almost 100% of the dealers gave their solemn pledge to abide by the majority decision.

Certain dealers have since broken their pledge and reopened on Sundays. We sincerely regret their action as we believe the public will agree there is a need for better business ethics throughout the industry. Since this is the sincere goal of all honest auto dealers, we choose to stand by our pledge and to work for better public relations with the majority of dealers. We hope the public will patronize these dealers.

So—to you folks that like to look around on Sundays—we say: Go ahead and look, but DON'T BUY! Get all the facts and figures, and then see your local dealer on Monday. His figures will be as good or better.
