

Green and White Theme Used At Schumert-Neubauer Rites

Miss Marilyn Joyce Schumert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Schumert, 911 Beech Ave., was a radiant bride as she walked down the aisle of the First Lutheran Church in Long Beach, last Saturday evening, at 7:30, to exchange wedding vows with Warren Frederick Neubauer, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Neubauer, 6155 Hazelbrook, Lakewood.

Rex F. Schumert, uncle of the bride, escorted her to the altar. She wore an embroidered nylon tulle over satin gown fashioned with a ruffled tiered back. Her full silk illusion veil cascaded from a pearl tiara and she carried white carnations and stephanotis encircling white orchids.

The green and white theme of the wedding was carried out in the altar decorations of greenery, white carnations and chrysanthemums and in the bridal attendants' gowns.

Mrs. Diane Moreno, sister of the bride, was the honor attendant. Her gown was of Nile green crystalline. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations and gardenias and wore two gardenias on her headband.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Sally Neubauer and Mrs. Mary Joe Hanna. They also wore ballerina length gowns of Nile green crystalline and carried colonial bouquets.

Little Miss Debra Durbin in white nylon tulle over Nile green taffeta was the flower girl.

Robert Neubauer served his brother as best man and ushers were Paul Schumert and Les Sherman.

Mrs. Bonnie Medved sang "Because," "O, Perfect Love" and during the blessing "The Lord's Prayer." The Rev. E. H. Schroeder conducted the ceremony.

The church hall where the reception was held was elaborately decorated in the green and white theme. Serving were Mrs. Audrey Killingsworth and Miss Doreen Friedl. Mrs. Janice Solomon was in charge of the guest book.

The newlyweds are honeymooning at Crestline and will return to their new home at 3289 Artesia Blvd., North Long Beach.

The bride is a Torrance High school graduate. She has been employed at the National Supply Co. for the past four years while continuing her business education at Long Beach State College.

Mr. Neubauer was graduated from Wilson High school in Long Beach and then attended Long Beach City College. He is now employed by an oil company.
