LOMITA LIMELIGHT

Some Mad Creations Displayed By Youngsters in Crazy Hats

By ALICE PALCZEWSKI DA 6-0788

Lomita Park was the site for a Crazy Hat Show on Aug. 14. Boys and girls entered hats of their own design and creation. First prize, a truck, went to 9-year-old Marton Berharas, who had decorated his hat with all sorts of miniature toys, topped with long curls, resembling the hair of a "witch." Other top prizes went to Audrey Pekarek and Pat Foster. Audrey used kitchen utensils and soap to decorate her hat, and added a monkey for that "certain touch." Pat chose an imported Italian straw hat for her entry and decorated it with small submarines.

The Barons and Baronets, a teenage club sponsored by the Lomita Park, are working every Tuesday and Thursday night on the float they plan to enter in the San Pedro Fisherman's Fiesta. The theme being carried out is "The Sea Around Us."

Another Lomita Park activity is the Safety Club. The club plans to join other like clubs from the various parks in a picnic at Griffith Park.

Overnight guests of the William Graves were Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Brown and family from Topeka, Kan.

In the short while the Browns were in Lomita, they visited Mrs. Graves' brother, William Dalby and then went to Torrance for dinner at Jack-son Dalby's. The Browns were shown points of interest around the harbor and were taken to Long Beach to visit Mrs. Nettie Campbell, sister of Mrs. Graves.

Mrs. Graves, who lives with her family on 248th St., recently was awarded a diamond "A" pin from the Avon Cosmetic Co. for selling over $1000 in make-up. Mrs. Graves accomplished this in an eight-month period.

The Lion Tamers invited the Lions and wives for an evening of bingo at the Harbor City home of Loman Carter.

Prizes went to Collis Jobe, Mrs. Oscar Swedberg and Mrs. R. H. Farrin. When all prizes had been won, additional winners took their prizes away from past winners. The prizes were canned goods, can openers and other edible and usable articles. Loman Carter, caller for the evening, made quite a hit with his broad Texas drawl.

Each lady present had been asked to bring two pies. These and coffee were served. At the close of the evening, the remaining pies were auctioned off to the nearly 30 guests.

Dorothy Farrin, president of the Lion Tamers, said that the proceeds of the evening's fun would go to some underprivileged child in Harbor City.

Den Two of the Cub Scouts of America spent an afternoon swimming in the Machado Pool, near the Harbor Junior College.

Den mother, JoAnn Scrivner, accompanied the Cubs. The boys swimming were David Scrivner, Robby Geurin, Bradley Geurin, Eddie Hansen, Emmette Foster, Paul Larson, Ricky Scott, Mike Bradshaw, Butch Bradshaw, Victor Osti and Dennis Jepsen.

The Exceptional Children's Foundation of the Harbor Area will set up an educational booth at the Lions Club Community Fair to be held in San Pedro from Aug. 22 to the 25.

The booth will show films and slides concerning retarded children and what can be done for them. Literature will be available and a display of items by mentally retarded children attending the training center at the Homer Toberman Settlement House will be shown.

The Foundation serves the mentally handicapped children in this area.

Madge Brown of 2233 W. 250th St., has been appointed sports director for the Redondo Stake of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

Mrs. Brown will be in charge of a camping outing in which nearly 115 girls participate. There will be a counselor for each eight girls. The camping will last a week at Strawberry Flats, Lake Arrowhead.

The Ann Wallerman Circle of the Southern Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. Ermel Graves at 2231 W. 248th St. The group heard a report from Mrs. B. A. Swaffler on the needs and progress of the Southern Baptist Children's Home in Bakersfield. New business was the planning of a "September Christmas Party" and the sending of gifts to a specific group of Indians in Arizona.

Those attending the meeting were Mmes. MacMillan, Bob Wells, Forest Parkins, Clark Miles, Mrs. Rose Picco, Mrs. Ethel Echolson. Guest visitor was Mrs. F. Skelton.

Mrs. Graves announced that any women interested in Southern Baptist missionary work are welcome to attend the Circle's next meeting scheduled for the Timms' residence at 250th St. and Cypress Ave.

Boy Scout Troop 115 recently returned from eight days in Yosemite Valley. The boys were driven to Yosemite by Marshall Monge and Carl Gregory. Once there the boys hiked, swam, rode bicycles at Camp Curry and went fishing.

several scouts was the scaling of Half Dome Mt., which is nearly two miles high from the valley floor. Outstanding beauty of the sheer cliffs and the level affect of the valley impressed the boys, equalled only by the fire fall. The fire fall occurs nightly at Glacier Point when a forest ranger pushes hot coals off the Point onto a ledge. Seen from Camp Curry, it appears to be a water fall on fire.

Accompanying the 29 scouts were Scoutmaster Louis Berard, Marshall Monge and Carl Gregory. Patrol leaders were Eddie Hager and Bill Graves.

Sunday guests of the Joe Burns, of 25349 Cypress, were Doris and Gene Erby of Los Angeles.

The friends spent the day at the beach and returned home to picnic in the Burns' backyard.

The Burns children enjoying the day with their parents were Lana and Bevely.

Mrs. Ethel Dalby's sister and her husband, R. D. Harriman, have returned to Lomita following Mr. Harriman's retirement from Naval duty in Boston, Mass.

Linda Starrett is visiting her aunt, Mary Twoley, in Livermore, Calif. Miss Starrett is a graduate of Narbonne High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Schewitzer and twins, Kathy and Christy, left on a trip to the western part of Oregon, where they will visit their daughter and son-in-law, Cullen and Dottie Deek.

The Deeks are graduates from Narbonne High. Dottie is a graduate from Pepperdine. Cullen is a professional ball player for the Emeralds at Oregon. After the season in Eugene is over, Cullen will resume studies at Pepperdine.

Dr. Arthur Lange, noted American composer and conductor, will direct the South Bay Civic Symphony Orchestra in two of his own compositions, "Big Trees," a symphonic poem from his California trilogy, and "Arabesque" for harp and orchestra, with Lois Craft as soloist, in the Torrance Bowl at 3 p.m., Sunday afternoon, Aug. 26.

Dr. Lange, who is permanent conductor of the Santa Monica Civic Symphony, will share the podium as guest of Elyse Aehle, regular director of the South Bay ensemble.
