AT CONVENTION

Mr. and Mrs. Leland M. Stratford of Torrance, are attending a convention in Berkeley held by the Beneficial Life Insurance Co. of Salt Lake City.

ITALIAN DINNER

Rebekah Lodge of Gardena will have an Italian supper, Sept. 1, at the Gardena Community Center. Frank Chiara will prepare the food. The public is invited.

Three new teachers have been assigned to the Western Avenue Baptist School at 253 and Western Ave.

They will assume teaching duties when the school opens this year on Sept. 17. Two new classes, the third and fourth, have been added this year.

The new teachers are Mmes. Rosanna Scritchfield, Esther Young and Irene Wilson. Mr. Wayne Kyllingstad will be school principal as well as minister of education at the church. He formerly was with Gardena Calvary Baptist Church.

A board meeting to plan ahead for the opening of the Torrance Cooperative Nursery School this fall was held last Monday at the home of Mrs. Forrest Wright.

The new officers are: president, Mrs. Dean Fisher; vice president, Mrs. Norman Hoffman; secretary, Mrs. Jim Gordy; and treasurer, Roger Saunders. Committee chairmen are Mrs. Harry Daniels, scheduling; Mrs. Henry Morgan, membership; Mrs. David Boxer, purchasing; Ray Richard, father's work; Mrs. Herb Bramson, education, and Mrs.

Don McLean, publicity. The nursery school program is conducted under the auspices of the Torrance Adult Education Department. The children are enrolled in a morning class that meets four days weekly with the mothers acting as assistant teachers under the guidance of Mrs. Myrtle Barter. Mrs. Barter also teaches the evening classes in parent education that include nursery school techniques and child development. Anyone interested in the program may contact the membership chairman, Mrs. Henry Morgan.
