

Job's Daughter Style Show Scheduled for Wednesday

Torrance Bethel Job's Daughters will stage its annual fashion show and luncheon Wednesday at 12:30 at the Torrance Masonic Temple on Cabrillo. "Bells of Fashion" has been chosen as the theme of the affair and will be used effectively in decorating.

Fashions are being provided by local merchants as well as a number of door prizes to be awarded during the show. A salad course will be served at 12:30 and will be followed by the parade of the latest in fashions for the school girl, miss and matron. Susan Babcock, honored queen, will be the commentator.

Linda Thayne and Jeannette Wright are in charge of the decorating and Kay Smith is handling the publicity. Sharon Neely is in charge of the ticket sales which are being conducted by the Job's Daughters. Tickets will also be available at the door.

Modeling will be Beverly Orend, Deanna Olsen, Sheila Hogan, Sandra Hanni, Sharon McNally, Charlotte McCombas, Pat Travis, Carla Conklin and Janice Jackson. Modeling adult fashions will be Mrs. W. L. Harvey, Mrs. C. R. Hornbeck and Mrs. J. T. Taylor.

Children's fashions will be shown by Pattie Moore and Jamie Crawford.

BACK-TO-SCHOOL . . . fashions will highlight the annual Job's Daughter Fashion show to be held Wednesday at 12:30 at the Masonic Temple, 2326 Cabrillo. Three of the models wearing transitional cottons, a popular favorite, are (from left) Beverly Orend, Deanna Olsen and Sheila Hogan.

Aquarians Will Hear Speaker

Gene Wolfshiemer, FAL of Sherman Oaks, noted ichthyologist and photographer will be the guest speaker at the August meeting of the Harbor Aquarium Society in the lounge of the Gardena Community Center, 1651 Market St., in Gardena, Tuesday, Aug. 28, at 7:30. President Charles Jones will open the meeting.

Wolfshiemer is noted for his beautiful photographic studies and slides of tropical fish. As a Fellow of Aquarists International, he has achieved world wide recognition as an authority on tropical fish for both the fresh water and salt water aquarium. He is the author of many illustrated articles in aquarium publications as well as the author of a book on aquarium plants. His topic will be "Salt Water Tropical Fish" and he will present some of his colored slides to illustrate his talk.

Tickets will be available to all members for distribution for the annual door prize of a fifteen gallon aquarium complete with accessories, plants and fish to be given away at the October meeting of the club.

The door prize will be a five gallon tank and hood. Refreshments will be served after the meeting. Any person interested in tropical fish as a hobby is invited to attend.

SHE'S A FAVORITE . . . with the Torrance Herald Staff who enjoy her efficient service at the coffee breaks held across the street. She is Irene Walgreen (right) who is presented with a doll birthday cake by Mrs. George Simmons, wife of the cafe owner. We were all there to wish a "Happy Birthday" to Irene.
