

JayCettes Plan Fall Agenda

JayCettes of Torrance held their monthly meeting Aug. 21 at the Chamber of Commerce building with Mrs. Charles Herren, president of the group presiding.

Future fall plans were made with their annual Halloween Dance slated with chairman Mrs. Bob Waters arranging the affair. Her committee includes Mmes Jack Cloward, Paul Wells, Bob Johnston and Margaret Newsome.

Other important events at the meeting included the following women volunteering for chairmanships: Mrs. Bill Lyons, civic improvement; sub-chairman Mmes Margaret Newsome, Keith Pischel, John Mangun; Mrs. Paul Wells, Hospitality chairman, co-chairman; Mrs. Mike Goetsch, means and means, sub-chairman; Mrs. Bob Johnston; hospital chairman, Mrs. Leonard Radford, co-chairman, Mrs. Lloyd Fossum.

Mrs. Jack Cloward was elected to the office of second director. Following the meeting, Mrs. Bill Lyons who was chairman of the yearly Hobby and Art Show showed colored movie pictures of the show and also the recent Torrance parade. Mrs. Ed Karlow won the door prize.

Next board meeting has been set for Sept. 11 at Mrs. Keith Pischel's home, 24105 Huber Ave. with the next general meeting slated for Sept. 18 at the Wayfarer's Inn for dinner at 7:30.

Ella Mae Has Gala Party

Ella Mae Langford's second birthday was the happy incentive for a party last Saturday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Langford, 750 20th St., San Pedro. The baby's mother, is the former Joann Harlan of Torrance.

A beautifully decorated birthday cake in pink and yellow was served with punch and ice cream. Games were played and Ella Mae was presented with gifts.

Ella Mae's little friends attending the party were Linda and Richard Minard, Debby and Dena Prettyman, Adeline Paloma, all of Torrance; her cousins, Ricky, Roger and Becky Logue, and Roger Langford; an uncle, Ronnie Langford of Montana and her aunts, Frances, Evelyn and Dorothy Harlan and Helen Langford.

On hand also were grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Harlan and Mrs. Florence Langford.

Narbonne

Board members of Narbonne High School PTA will meet with their new president, Mrs. D. G. Cheek, on Thursday, Sept. 6, at Torrance Park.

The business meeting will be called to order at 9:30 a.m. during which time new board members will be ratified.

Following the meeting a pot luck luncheon will be served.
