LOMITA LIMELIGHT

Vacationing Pair Visit Pike's Peak, Las Vegas During Tour

By ALICE PALCZEWSKI DA 6-0788
 Mrs. Louise Griffith, president of the Lomita's DeMolay Mothers Club, extends a cordial invitation to other DeMolay mothers in the surrounding area to attend the Lomita meetings. Mrs. Griffith feels such a visit would be beneficial to all present.

The DeMolay Mothers Club meets the first Tuesday of each month at the Masonic Temple on Blaine St. The meetings begin at 7:30.

The route chosen by the vacationing R. J. Chownes and son, Ronald, was through Nevada, into Arizona, through New Mexico and finally to their destination of Pike's Peak, Colo. From Pike's Peak, the Chownes motored to Grand Junction, where they visited with Mrs. Chownes' cousins.

The ride through the Rocky Mountains was Mrs. Chownes' first sight of them, and she said it left her breathless. On the way home they stopped over in Salt Lake City, and then came through Nevada to Reno where they spent time with some friends. Neared home, the Chownes stopped off in Las Vegas to take in "The Strip."

Viewing the gaming tables from the balcony foyers provided for spectators and those under 21, the Chownes received the thrill of the glamorous city without "paying the price."

dress to be worn during the annual convention to be held in San Diego some time in October. The Opti-Mrs. from each section wear alike dresses so their own club members can be quickly identified.

During the convention there will be a jeweled box contest. Several Lomita members are working on boxes, the best of which will represent the local Opti-Mrs. at the convention. The boxes will later be used for lingerie, knick-knacks, or what have you.

Boy Scout Troop 255 and the Deacon Quorum of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints held a "Back to School" watermelon bust at Huntington Beach State Park last Saturday.

After swimming for hours and filling up on the melons, hot dogs, cakes, and soda pop, the boys were delighted at the number of clams exposed by the minus tide.

Scouts and Deacons were Gilbert Isom, Kenneth and Charles Themm, Charles and Michael Bradshaw, Michael Brown, Ralph Hamilton, Billy Green, Lonnie Booher, Robert Johnson, Jeff Pruett, Gary Jennison and Leon Breckner. Scoutmaster Newell H. Brown, and his assistant, Bill Green, accompanied the boys.

A Four-Bethel meeting of the Jobs Daughters is scheduled tomorrow night at the Lomita Masonic Temple. Grand Guardian Frieda Aggen and Assistant Grand Guardian Glen Younklin will officiate at the initiation of eight new members.

Obituaries

Gerado Zuniga
 Graveside services were held yesterday at 10 a.m. for one-month-old Gerado Zuniga, of 1547 W. 226th St., who died Saturday at a local hospital.

Burial was in Holy Cross Cemetery under the direction of Stone and Myers Mortuary. Survivors of the infant are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luis Zuniga, of the local address; three brothers, Alfredo, Federico and Luis, and a sister, Dolores.

Elizabeth Cook
 Funeral mass at Nativity Church was celebrated yesterday for Elizabeth Cook, 92, of 2707 Sonoma St., who died Monday.

A native of Pennsylvania, she was a local resident for six years. Rosary was recited for her Tuesday night at 8 p.m. at Stone and Myers Mortuary Chapel. Burial was in Holy Cross Cemetery yesterday. Survivors include a sister, Mrs. Anna Gitschler and two nephews, John and Lawrence Gitschler, all of Torrance, and a brother, John Cook, of Ohio.
