Dr. Earl Barnum Reveals Subject

Dr. Earl D. Barnum, minister of the Church of Religious Science at Ruby and Catalina Sts. in Redondo Beach, has announced his subject for next Sunday will be "The Tyranny of The 'I' Should."
 Sunday services of the church and the metateens will be held concurrently at 11 a.m. The children's church services will begin seven minutes before 11.
 A 15-minute meditation period precedes the church services, with organ music by the church organist, Jean Rhodes. A nursery for infants and the younger children, under the supervision of a registered nurse, is available.
 The Inspiration Hour is held on Wednesdays at 1 p.m. in the classroom, at 503 South Catalina Ave. This coming Wednesday, discussion will be on the subject "Begin Now."
 The public is invited to all church activities. A booklet, "The Ministry of the Church of Religious Science of Redondo Beach," will be sent upon request.

Soldier on Duty Here

BOYS HOME CHAPEL . . . Breaking ground for a new chapel at the Optimist Boys Home in Highland Park last week were officials who are responsible for the design and construction of the chapel, and representatives of the Catholic, Protestant, and Jewish faiths. Left to right, are Architect David Patterson, Contractor Vern R. Huck, the Rt. Rev. Robert Bond, Rev. Robert H. Warren, and Rabbi Harold Scharfman. Torrance and other Optimist Clubs in the 14th District contributed funds to construct the new house of worship for the 60 boys who live at the home.
