

Amaranth Reception For Grand Officers

Order of Amaranth members, including Supreme and Grand officers and friends of the Order, filled Torrance Masonic temple to capacity, Thursday evening, Sept. 13, to honor the Grand officers of Lomita Court; Honored Lady Mattie A. Meyer, Assistant Grand Lecturer and Estella DesJardins, Grand Representative to the State of Oklahoma in a public reception given by the court as a tribute to their untiring efforts in promoting the welfare of the order.

The reception began with the mistress of ceremonies, Honored Lady Sally Weber, Past Royal Matron of Lomita Court, directing Honored Lady Edna Mullen, marshal in the East and Honored Lady Vivian Cook, marshal in the West, to escort the Royal Matron Gladys Mothersell and Royal Patron Clyde Satterfield to the throne, where they were duly presented.

The honored guests, Honored Lady Mattie Meyer, escorted by Sir Knight Eugene Meyer, her royal patron in 1954 and Honored Lady Estella DesJardins, escorted by Sir Knight Gordon Mothersell, her royal patron in 1953, were presented.

Honored Lady Sally Weber, mistress of ceremonies welcomed the members and guests and gave a talk on Amaranth objectives.

One of the features of the evening was the beautiful rendition of the song "Some Enchanted Evening," by Joseph Bjornaldh, the talented soloist, who with his accompanist, Mrs. Jacqueline Hecht, entertained the assemblage several times during the evening.

Honored Lady Lela E. Bolin, Past Grand Royal Matron, now Supreme Marshal in the East, of the Supreme Council of Amaranth, was escorted and presented, also Honored Lady May McCormick, Past Grand Royal Matron; Sir Knight W. Morton Gardner and Sir Knight Milo Dellman, past grand royal patrons.

Unusual and novel means were employed, by the several groups, in paying tribute and respect to Honored Lady Mattie and Honored Lady Estella. Many members of their respective associations were present and participated in the ceremony of giving gifts to the grand officers.

Representing Lomita Court, Honored Lady Audrey Bacon, associate matron and Sir Knight Fred Bacon, associate patron paid tribute to the court's grand officers in an impressive presentation.

Hilarity in musical form was provided, under the direction of Sir Knight Eugene Meyer, by a local SPEBSQSA quartet, who presented a series of barber shop melodies.

Honored Lady C. Esther Colbert, banquet room chairman, announced the "line of march" and all enjoyed the results of the handwork of the refreshment committee, as displayed in the autumn motif decorations of the banquet room and delicious refreshments, prepared and served by them.

Local Girls Take Honors In Singer Sewing Contest

Their dresses did make them famous and two girls walked off with first place honors in the sewing contest staged by the Singer Sewing Machine Co., of the South Bay district.

The girls were each presented with scissor sets and their garments will be entered in the Long Beach district contest which include young girls from Southern California.

Judi Noeth, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Noeth, 343 Via El Chico, took the junior division first prize. Judi is a student at Riviera Elementary School, in the seventh grade. She has never had sewing in school, but took it up as a hobby, making doll clothes under the supervision of her mother. This summer she enrolled in the Singer Sewing Machine sewing class for girls from 10 to 13 years of age. Judi's prize winning dress was made of blue rayon-Mallinson Rusteena with a tab and button trim and a small white collar.

RESUME TEACHING

Mrs. Elaine Metfessel has resumed her teaching position in El Segundo where she teaches the first grade and her brother, Bruce Rehwoald, who was recently discharged from the service, has returned to Hope School near Santa Barbara, resuming the duties he left when he entered the service. The two teachers are the son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rehwoald, 1601 El Prado.
