P T A ACTIVITIES

Madrona

Madrona PTA got off to a flying start this year under the direction of Mrs. A. U. Turner, president, and Mrs. L. D. Muhleck, hospitality. The first event was a lovely luncheon for the teachers on the staff of Madrona with a 100 per cent attendance. The first day of school all parents entering children for the first time were served coffee and doughnuts by the PTA Board and were given a chance to meet their teachers and each other. The last PTA board meeting was held Sept. 19, at the home of Mrs. W. M. McDade, 911 Felbar. Plans were made for the coming year and S. Walrip, assistant superintendent of Torrance schools was present and talked on the School Bond Issue to be voted on Oct. 9.

Newton

The first fall meeting of the Newton PTA will be held Thursday evening at 8 p.m., with S. E. Waldrip, assistant business superintendent of Torrance schools, as guest speaker. Mr. Waldrip will speak on the school bond issue to come before the voters on Oct. 9.

No. Torrance

The annual teachers' luncheon was held at the school by the executive board of the North Torrance Elementary PTA Wednesday, Sept. 12. Following the luncheon, Mrs. M. Denmark, school principal, introduced her teachers and staff. Mrs. R. Payne, PTA president, then introduced the executive board members and welcomed the school personnel.

A meeting of the budget and finance committee took place at the home of Mrs. L. B. Graham, 17220 Wilkie Ave., Friday, Sept. 14. Those present were Mrs. Denmark, Mrs. Payne, Mrs. G. Stashak, Mrs. B. Cook and Mrs. H. York. After completing the budget to be presented to the association for its approval there was discussion regarding the school carnival. It is tentatively to be held Saturday, Oct. 20, from 11:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

Seaside

PTA of Seaside School held its first general meeting of the year on Tuesday, Sept. 25, at 7:30 p.m. at the school.

Edward L. Olsen of the F. B. I. spoke on "The F. B. I. Benefiting the Community." Lloyd Jones, principal introduced the teachers. Mrs. Harry Young, citizenship chairman, gave information on the Overide Tax to be voted on soon.

The first regular executive board meeting was held Sept. 18, in the home economics room of Seaside school. Mrs. Warren Boggs presided at the meeting.

The new budget for the school year was presented to the board and approved.

Mrs. John Keyes, ways and means chairman, announced the main money-raising project of the year will be a ham dinner to be held at the school on Oct. 13, 4 to 8 p.m.

Mrs. Keonard Priestly informed the group that the membership campaign starts Oct. 1 to 8. The prizes to be awarded the rooms with highest percentages of parent memberships will be their choice of a field trip, during the year.

Mrs. Steinwachs presented plans for the Annual Get-Acquainted Breakfast, to be held Oct. 4, 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. at 4846 Mindora Dr. All parents and friends are welcome.

Executive board meetings will be held the third Monday evening of the month, with the general meeting on the fourth Tuesday.

POCAHONTAS

Degree of Pocahontas, Chicopee Council will hold meetings in the American Legion Hall, 24702 Narbonne Ave., Lomita, beginning with their Oct. 3 meeting. They formerly met at the California Hall.

Riviera

Monday, Sept. 17, Mrs. George T. Savage, membership chairman of the Hollywood Riviera PTA, held a meeting at her home, 102 Calle de Arboles.

A letter was drafted to be sent to all parents of children in attendance at the Hollywood Riviera School explaining the purpose of PTA, an outline of the program for the year and a sheet explaining the disbursement of each membership. An invitation to join is extended to parents and friends of children. The membership drive begins Oct. 1. Those present at the meeting were Mrs. M. H. Sparks, Hollywood Riviera PTA president, Mrs. Gene Voorhees, publicity chairman, and Mrs. Stan Klimeczko.

Newton

The first fall meeting of the Newton PTA will be held Thursday evening at 8 p.m., with S. E. Waldrip, assistant business superintendent of Torrance schools, as guest speaker. Mr. Waldrip will speak on the school bond issue to come before the voters on Oct. 9.

A Halloween Carnival and dinner to be held on Oct. 31 was planned and discussed at the board meeting and will be brought before the PTA members for voting.

The budget and finance committee met last week at the school and set up the budget for the coming year. It will be read and voted on Thursday night.

Refreshments will be served by the executive board at the close of the meeting.

FERN-GREENWOOD

Membership drive of the Fern-Greenwood PTA will start Oct. 1, with the sending home of envelopes with the children. Dads, as well as Moms, are urged to send in the money for their memberships, and to take an active part in the meetings. Mrs. A. E. McVicar, membership chairman, with her committee of Mrs. T. J. Wilkes, Mrs. L. H. Voinen, Mrs. D. Mathlen, and assisted by the president, Mrs. D. D. Tugle, announced plans to stimulate 100 per cent membership by offering a $5 first prize and a $3 second prize to the grade in each school that brings in the most members.

Tuesday the newly formed Mothersingers group entertained at the breakfast for the room mothers in the Torrance Park Dr. J. H. Hull spoke on the plans to seek state aid in financing the new school construction program in Torrance.

Mrs. Bert Lynn, community relation chairman, announced that her committee had compiled a list of the phone numbers of all voters in this district, and plans to contact them urging a vote in the coming special school election. The breakfast was planned by Mrs. J. S. Gable, room representative chairman.

CLUB SLATES ACTIVITIES

Members of the Palos Verdes-Redondo Soroptimist held a joint business and board meeting at a supper club in Redondo to plan the activities for their second charter year.

The ways and means committee composed of Helen Wagner, chairman, Gladys Tremaine, Bobbie Morgan, Gertrude Markowitz and Mary Pilkington present some unusual projects.

During the holiday season, this club will concentrate on the Yuletide pleasure of the elder citizens, many of whom are without family ties.
