

A LITERARY TEA . . . Peter Medina, 13, of 24424 Los Codonas (left), and Rickey Pullan, 12, of 24255 Ocean Ave., were supposed to be helping the Walteria School PTA with the group's paper drive Thursday. A lull in the proceedings, a surfeit of reading material and a comfortable reclining place in the bundles of papers proved too inviting.

Postponement Of GI Bill's End Hailed

Good news for many World War II veterans is word of the postponement of the GI loan deadline until 1958, according to Mrs. Helen K. Dill, director of the Torrance Area Veterans Service Center.

"Before Congress revised the law." said Mrs. Dill, veterans who badn't used their World War II GI loan guaranty rights faced the prospect of taking action within the next few months to be sure their loans were completed before the July 25, 1957 deadline. Now any approved loan, if applied for by July 25, 1958, may be guaranteed by the Veterans Administration, provided the final papers are signed within a year thereafter."

Mrs. Dill, pointed out that the amended law defines situations in which GI loan rights can be restored to a veteran who loses his home for reasons beyound his control. This could happen if the property were: 1) taken by a government agency for public use; 2) destroyed by a natural hazard, such as flood or fire; 3) otherwise disposed of for complete the property were: 1) taken by a government agency for public use; 2) destroyed by a natural hazard, such as flood or fire; 3) otherwise disposed of for complete the property were: 1) taken by a government agency for public use; 30 derewise disposed of for complete the property were: 1) taken by a government sagency for public use; 30 derewise disposed of for complete the property were: 1) taken by a government agency for public use; 30 derewise disposed of for complete the property were in the property
