Mother Surprised to Find Old Friends Living in Same Block

By VERA C. WRIGHT

Mr. and Mrs. M. Wisdom, of 18313 Roslin Ave., were paid a surprise visit by Mr. and Mrs. Gene Pritchard of Evar, Mich., who are celebrating their fiftieth (50th) wedding anniversary with a trip. Accompanying the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Lenford Pritchard, their son, and his wife. The foursome is staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Brock, popular family within the Lawndale district.

This is the month of surprises for Sally Wisdom for upon walking with her young-fry Nona to kindergarten class she discovered a couple of friends, former neighbors of hers from Farmington, Mich., residing at the end of her block! Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Don McKaye, of 18544 Roslin Ave.

The lucky persons who attended the parent-teacher conference at the El Nido school on Sept. 26 were in for a treat in the line of refreshments. El Nido PTA members, Mrs. Elmer Ecker and Mrs. Jerry Westmoreland, were handing out coffee, hors-d'oeuvres, cookies and chocolate cupcakes covered with nuts! Yum, Yum, I was there!!!

It was a pleasure seeing lovely Pat Dohner once again for although she had received a nasty leg burn just recently, not a sign appears to indicate an injury. Looking every bit like a magazine cover model she was sporting a beautiful shorts outfit.

I offered my 14-year-old North High sophomore my kitchen for the rest of the year but he wouldn't accept! After winning five dollars for one of his recipes in one of the daily newspapers, I was sure he would jump at the chance!

I don't know of a sorority that has more fun than the Eta Kappa Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha whose president is Florence Pfeiffer. Latest of their activities was the "come as you are" breakfast hosted by Mary Espinosa, Peggy Le Francois, and Audrey Herring at 18312 Roslin Ave. Present wearing an array of robes, nightgowns, pin-curls, etc., were: Ann Verne, Mary Espinosa, Peggy Le Francois, Audrey Herring, Vera Tang, Pat Stamm, Elinore Ruby and Mildred Westmoreland. Orange juice, pancakes and steaming hot coffee were enjoyed by every lady present.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Warren and Mr. and Mrs. John Emery are still talking about the wonderful evening they enjoyed last week. They had dinner at the Emery home-stead after having enjoyed cocktails at the Warren household, then motored to the Huntington Hartford Theatre in Hollywood to enjoy Judith Anderson and Gladys Cooper in "The Chalk Garden." The evening ended with snack time at the Moulin Rouge!

Gloria Villegas, of 18344 Roslin Ave., had lots of things to tell her new playmates in kindergarten for her mother and dad, Connie and Sam, just finished painting their home and now we have a lovely maroon and tan home in our neighborhood.

Get-well-soon wishes are on their way to the home of Mrs. Enid Hunters and also to Miss Jeanette Kelly for they both have had a bad siege of that dreaded stomach flu.

Don't be surprised if you see Irene Rowell strolling in a complete new wardrobe, for that lucky lady received a brand new sewing machine on her 14th wedding anniversary and also enjoyed an evening out with her handsome husband Brian.

Nine-year-old Glenn Young claims he has the smartest friends in the entire world for it seems that this popular young man has toys and clothes galore. So when he was given a surprise birthday party, all nine fellows invited thought they were each being very original by giving him a month's supply of ice cream coupons! Not being very patient, Glenn exchanged the entire supply for ice cream the very next day, so guess what

Mrs. Young has her freezer full of?

Pretty little Susie Terroni loves her kindergarten teacher so much that she just had to name her new pet dog in honor of the El Nido teacher whose name is Mrs. Buck. She calls the dog "Buckie."

Oct. 9, if you will note, is the special day we all should vote!

A word of sympathy for 15-year-old Jack Warner who worked very hard all summer long to purchase a bike so he can get a paper route, only to find it gone after going for a swim. Nice friends and neighbors are getting together for donations to purchase another bike for the conscientious lad.

Bonnie Burch, 18229 Roslin Ave., is still very excited about the interesting vacation trip she accompanied Mrs. Glen Runsted and Joan Runsted to Nephi, Utah, and is eagerly waiting to see what Christmas vacation will offer.

Marineland is still the subject for much discussion even after three tours by the B. W. Courtney family of six. A trip to Mars at the planetarium is on the agenda for the active family this next week end.

Two matrons in our community with brand new hair-cuts and featuring new coiffures are Mrs. Elmer Ecker, El Nido PTA president, and Mrs. R. Snyder, Perry PTA member.

Get-well wishes are extended to 6-year-old Ted Slatten, of 18329 Roslin Ave., who has been experiencing a variety of illnesses and among them an appendicitis attack.

Johnny Brown and Ted Miller are two very patient boys who have been fishing in the Alondra Lake for the past two years with many a nibble on their line but never a fish caught, yet!

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Hynes, of 18321 Roslin Ave., have certainly spent many laboring moments in their kitchen for their interior decorating in their kitchen is quite different and very attractive.

Among the young men in our community who are taking up bowling are John Peters, Wayne Wright, Jerry Hill, Bill Wright, Dick Dawson and Sam Moore.

The Garden Bridge Club met for their September game at the Greville home of Mrs. M. A. Moore who served chicken-a-la-king, hot rolls, lemon gelatin salad, sherbet, and coffee to 11 guests. Winner of high score was Alynne Johnson while Milly Harrigan walked off with booby prize. Their October session will be held at the Palos Verdes Estates home of Helen Hooks.

Mrs. Jenny Allen started baking holiday fruit cakes this week and with six children and 14 grandchildren, she is going to make 12 of the five-pound cakes so that no one will be left out. After the 12 for her family she will then make the ones for her neighbors!

Happy birthday to Jeanne Morrow was very disappointed that her baby brother did not show up on her seventh birthday as he is due any day now!
