Lomita Men's Chorus Holds First Meeting

Edwin Abbott is home recuperating nicely after undergoing the same type of operation as President Eisenhower.

Mr. Abbott was stricken while on his vacation in Wyoming and returned home immediately. He was promptly admitted to the Torrance hospital.

Lana Jo Burns, seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Burns is up and around and nearly ready to start back to school after having a tonsilectomy last week.

The Lomita Men's Chorus held its first meeting of this year at the Lomita Elementary School. The men are under the direction of Louis Willis. The group sing throughout the area for various groups and organizations.

Anyone wishing to join, or to engage the group for an evening may contact Herald Jack by calling DA 6-1043.

The members are Wally Butler, Earl Webb, Walter Meyer, Ivan Smith, Harold Jack, Ed Abbott, and Frank Mickunas.

Scoutmaster Newell H. Brown of Troop 255 instructed his charges in tin foil cookery on Sept. 24.

The event took place in the Brown's back yard, with the boys doing all the work. First success of the evening was the making of fires according to the scout manual's specific requirements. The boys baked their individual dinners by placing a portion of hamburger, sliced potatoes, onions, carrots and green peppers in tin foil, wrapped tightly together and placed in hot coals.

Guide Mother Marvella Geurin assisted Scoutmaster Brown throughout the evening. Scouts participating were Eddy Mata, David Sanders, Billy Green, and Bobby Cuppett.

Lomita Opti-Mrs. attending the Opti-Mrs. Convention in San Diego at the El Cortez Hotel are Jo Bacon, Gertrude Teunis, Marvella Geurin, Mildred Mumby, Doris Quimette, Evelyn Dollarheide, Eileen Emma, and Dolores Benbow.

Aside from the business sessions of the convention, the women will place their jeweled box entry in the contest for the best one, and will also see a fashion show with the creations shown being what the model would most like to be wearing in a ship wreck.

WALTERIA NOTES

Church Women Plan Annual Bazaar Nov. 10

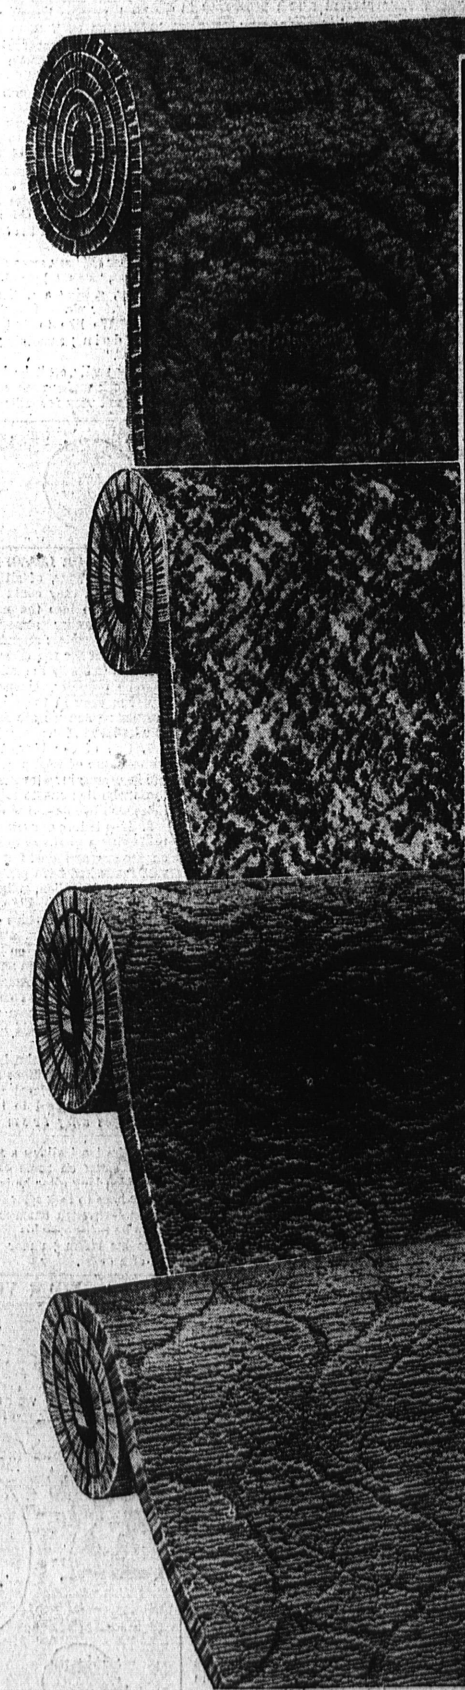

The local Women's Society of Christian Service is busy as a hive of bees these days. They held their general meeting for the month recently, at the local Methodist Church. Twenty-seven members were present to hear the devotion led by Mrs. William Cunningham, and the program on quadrennial goals presented by Mrs. Roy Cornell. After the program, the ladies adjourned to the social hall for a short business meeting presided over by president, Mrs. Robert Cramer. The ladies were then served cake and coffee by hostesses of the Martha Circle, Mmes. Stewart Rose, Harold Haven, and Dick Travolia. The cake was a "birthday cake" done in blue and gold celebrating the fifth anniversary of the local organization. The ladies announced that the annual winter bazaar to be held this year on November 10, will be combined with a turkey dinner. Mrs. Robert Allison, chairman of the bazaar, states that the bazaar this year will have home-made goodies in "Candy-lane" with Ruth Circle as chairman, aprons in the "Dry Goods" with Naomi Circle as chairman, toys in "Toyland" under the direction of Martha Circle, while Dorcas Circle will see to the novelties in "Christmas Surprise."

DENSE POPULATION

Despite mountainous country, south China has a far greater population than the United States, although it covers an area less than one-fourth of the U. S., according to U.N. estimates.
