

Y-Teen Officers Make Trip

Officers from Y-teen clubs of the entire Harbor area will spend a week-end together at Camp Tahquitz Meadows for fun and training. Three officers from each high school club are eligible to participate in the training sessions to be held on Oct. 6 and 7.

Each of the three branches of the Harbor area YWCA have been assigned a part of the program. The Wilmington group assisted by Marian Fatout, director, will be in charge of the "Give and Take" the part that will feature an exchange of ideas for club activities. The evening program will be arranged by the San Pedro members with Eleanor Hawkins, San Pedro Teen-age director. At this session the Nation Y-teen Conference to be held in Washington D. C.

and New York in November will be featured. The Torrance Y-teens with Edith Simpelaar, Torrance Y-teen director will present training in "Leadership and Techniques of Leadership."

Vespers will be directed by Judy Wolf. In addition a program of fun and activities including swimming is also planned.

The steering committee of Y-teens includes: Patsy King, Sandra Davies, Gay Larson, Louise Antonio, Diane Cook, Ruth McCune, Mary Ann Purak, Rachel Hagen, Marilyn Linscott, Judy Wolf, and Vickie Almeida.

Food for the week-end will be prepared by a committee of YWCA members including Mmes. Larry Lightner, Justin Brennan, and Roy Peronia.
