

(Portrait by Seeman)

MISS STELLA MAE EMERY
... November Bride

(Portrait by Seeman)

MISS BARBARA ANN FEDOR
... Early Spring Bride

(Portrait by Seeman)

MISS CAROL ANN DAVIS
... Engagement Revealed

MISS JOAN CAROL KOPPES
... Makes Promises

Emery-Biggins Wedding to Climax Narbonne Romance

The engagement and wedding plans of their daughter, Stella Mae, to Harry L. Biggins are being announced today by Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Emery, 1573 W. 215th St. The future bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Leonard Hedstrom, 1847 253rd St., Lomita.

The wedding will be solemnized on Saturday, Nov. 10, at 2:30 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Torrance.

The marriage will climax a romance which began during the couple's freshman year at Narbonne High School, from which they were graduated in the class of 1955.

Both were vice-presidents of the student body at Narbonne and Miss Emery was president of the Girls' League while Mr. Biggins was president of the Vigilantes.

Barbara Fedor Sets March Date with W. N. Strittmatter

March of 1957 will be the month in which the wedding of Miss Barbara Ann Fedor and Wayne Neal Strittmatter will be solemnized.

The announcement of the betrothal and tentative wedding plans are being made by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fedor, of 1522 Amapola Ave.

Parents of the future bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Strittmatter of Atlantic, Iowa.

The bride-to-be is a junior at Torrance High School.

Mr. Strittmatter was educated in Atlantic, Iowa. He is now serving with the United States Navy aboard the USS Henrico at Long Beach. He will be discharged in February.

Carol Davis-Robert Green Planning Holiday Wedding

Wedding bells will ring during the holidays for Miss Carol Ann Davis whose engagement and wedding plans are being announced today by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Davis, of 2413 Andreo St.

The benedict-elect is Robert J. Green, son of Mrs. Dorothy Green, 14133 Reis St., Whittier, and Emmett Green of Studio City.

The future bride was graduated from Torrance High School in 1954. She is a laboratory technician for the Shell Chemical Co.

Mr. Green was graduated from John Muir high school in Pasadena and is in his junior year at Pasadena Junior College where he is majoring in electronics.

No definite date has been selected for the wedding.

Koppes-Wilkinson Rites To Be Solemnized in June

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur S. Cook, 22703 Eastwood, are today announcing the engagement of Miss Joan Carol Koppes to Richard D. Wilkinson, son of Mr. Edwin Wilkinson, 2467 Torrance Blvd.

The bride-elect is a senior at Torrance High school. Mr. Wilkinson was graduated from Torrance High in 1954. He is now attending El Camino, majoring in electronics.

A June wedding is being planned by the couple.

Bridge Party Entertains

A centerpiece of fall flowers decorated the luncheon table last Thursday when Mrs. Mel Millar entertained her bridge club at her home, 205 Paseo De Las Delicias.

At the conclusion of an afternoon of bridge the high score prize went to Mrs. Paul Loranger.

Mrs. Millar's guests were Mmes. Paul Loranger, Dean Sears, William Garrity, club members: Mmes. John Melville and Eugene Cook, new members, and guests Mrs. Robert Buckley and Mrs. Charles Atwater of Evanston, Ill.

The club will meet in two weeks with Mrs. Dean Sears.

Mrs. John Patrick entertained her bridge club at her home, 229 Greenwood Ave., last Monday evening.

After the games the hostess served refreshments. Mrs. Patrick's guests were Mmes. William Christian, Howard Percy, George Stevens, Kenneth McBreen, Paul Winn, Rod Norris and Burton Easley.

The club will be entertained in two weeks by Mrs. Norris.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Allen, 20909 La Salle left Friday by car for Dallas, Texas where they will spend 10 days visiting friends.

Longren Woman's Club Organized on Oct. 11

Following a pattern of development in this fastest growing community in the southland, 30 women gathered last Thursday evening, Oct. 11, at the Longren Aircraft, Plant 2, to organize the Longren Woman's club. The purpose of this organization is to develop activities, social and cultural, and to support philanthropic enterprises. The organization will cooperate with and be an auxiliary to the Longren Associate club.

At this first meeting, election of officers was held. Mrs. James Monroe Sr. will serve as president of the new group.

Her board of officers consists of Mrs. Earl Truscott, vice president; Mrs. Bill Rose, second vice president; Mrs. John Godgurski, third vice president; Mrs. Ernest Roach, recording secretary, and Mrs. James Monroe, Jr., corresponding secretary, and Mrs. James Blair, treasurer.

Chairmen are Mrs. Orv Roland, ways and means; Mrs. Roger St. Onge, welfare; Mrs. Bill Becker, publicity; Mrs. Ed Mobley, parliamentarian and Mrs. Max Pier, historian.

Invitations to join the club are in the mail and all women affiliated with Longren are especially urged to attend the next meeting slated for Nov. 29 at 8 p.m. at Longren Plant 2.

The club is now making plans for a Halloween dance to be held at the Hacienda Hotel Oct. 27 beginning at 8 p.m.

During the social hour refreshments were served by Mrs. Hampton Wentworth and Mrs. James Monroe, Sr.

ALABAMA GUESTS
Week-end guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Burton Easley, 3306 Eldorado, were Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Neeley of Mobile, Ala. Dr. Neeley was in California to attend the surgeons' convention.

FROM HOUSTON
Mr. and Mrs. J. Parke Montague, 1328 Beech Ave., are expecting Mrs. Montague's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Nunnely, of Houston, Tex., to arrive this week end. The visitors will spend a week here before going to San Francisco and Las Vegas.

Mrs. Ann Grogan Marries Girlhood Sweetheart Here

A teenage romance in England over 50 years ago was brought to a happy climax last Saturday evening in the study at the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church when Mrs. Ann Grogan, 624 Cota Ave., became the bride of Thomas Dacar of Seattle, Wash.

Since their teenage days, the couple had not seen each other until a year ago when Mr. Dacar returned to England for a visit. While there he saw Mrs. Grogan's sister who gave him Mrs. Grogan's address.

Upon his return to Seattle, Mr. Dacar and Mrs. Grogan began corresponding. Their letters convinced them that they should become better acquainted and Mr. Dacar made a visit to Torrance. Here, Mr. Dacar asked the question which climaxed the 50-year romance.

For her wedding, the bride wore a navy blue suit and a corsage of pink carnations. Her attendant, Mrs. Jack Radcliffe, wore a blue silk dress and a pink carnation corsage.

A reception was then held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Allen Pyeatt, 3228 Onrado, for close friends and relatives. A beautiful pink and white wedding cake was baked by the niece of the bride, Mrs. Leslie Atkinson. Pink carnations also decorated the bride's table.

The couple are now at home at 624 Cota Ave.

Attending the reception were Messrs. and Mmes. M. L. Harris, Leslie Atkinson, Richard Thompson, Robert Reed, and Mmes. Edna Humphries and Flora Atkinson.

Family to Honduras

Mrs. Robert Brady and two children, 15201 Cerise will leave by plane next week to join their husband and father, Professor Brady, in Tegucigalpa, Honduras.

Professor Brady, who served on the staff at El Camino college for several years, is on a two year government assignment in Honduras, where he is teaching science.

Mrs. Brady and the children will be entertained at a farewell dinner this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schneider, 17314 Elgar.

Club Hostess

Mrs. Don Anderson entertained her bridge club last Wednesday evening at her home, 1611 Fern Ave.

At the close of the games the hostess served refreshments.

Mrs. Anderson's guests were Mmes. Marvin McCabe, Wesley Megow, R. E. Murphy, C. Hogan, Al Snyder, Joe Cannon and Fred Hilton.

The club will be entertained in two weeks by Mrs. Joe Cannon.

IN ONTARIO
Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Elmore and son David, 1750 Flower, spent the week end in Ontario where they were guests of their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Tresba.

AT THE HELM . . . of the newly organized Longren Woman's Club is this panel of officers elected at the organizational meeting last Thursday at the plant. They are (front row, from left) Mrs. Earl Truscott, vice president; Mrs. James Monroe, president; Mrs. Bill Rose, second vice president. Backrow: Mrs. John Godgurski, third vice president, and Mrs. Ernest Roach, secretary. The group will serve as an auxiliary to Longren Associate club.

(Gerald Photo)

MRS. JERRY WHITE
... Recent Bride

(Grotty photo)