Tighe Hails King Record On Veterans

Congressman Cecil R. King was termed the "top choice" for veterans in the 17 Congressional campaign by Francis N. Tighe, of Redondo Beach, a disabled veteran of two world wars.

Tighe, chairman of the Veterans for King, said that "King has been a leader in veterans' legislation throughout his long public career and understands the problems over which veterans are concerned."

"During his 14 years in Congress he has represented our Congressional district with achievement and distinction and treats his constituents equally, regardless of party affiliation," said Tighe.

"Tighe declared that King, an experienced legislator with valuable seniority, has fought vigorously for greater air power and has been a leader in the program through which the United States has kept the free world strong."

"Congressman King's voting record in behalf of veterans is rated 100 per cent by leading veteran organizations and his re-election will insure continuance of top legislation."

New Leaves Added to Family Trees of 191st St. Residents

By RUTH FOSTER FR 9-9508

The trees are shedding their leaves in some parts of the country, but on 191st St. there are family trees whose new "leaves" have just appeared.

At the Paul Mitchells', 4718 W. 191st, a son, Craig, was born Oct. 18. The other Mitchell children are Ricky, 4½, and Sherry, who just climbed into the 2-year-old bracket Saturday.

A little "sweet Hart" joined the family of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hart, 4770 W. 191st, on Oct. 2. She is Patricia, the third daughter. Her elder sisters are Mary, 3, and Kathy, 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Harris are the parents of Ronald Andrew, born Oct. 9 at Long Beach Osteopathic Hospital. Brothers Dickie, Bruce, Bobby and Danny will be his able teachers at their home, 4631 Bulova.

the 11th but she celebrated the 14th, Sunday.

That gave her more time to admire the hat, tinkertoys, boys, and oh so much more that came her way in ribbons and wrap. Neighbor children who approved heartily of the cake (and they all did) were Gretchen Rix, Carol Ann, Judy and David, Cheatham, Kay Lyn Johnson, and Kathy's sisters Nancy and Linda.

A call from grandparents in Washington, D.C., was an added thrill.

It was all so unexpected, being morning when most of the girls are still brushing away the breakfast crumbs. But that was the way Mrs. Marilyn Schaeffer's baby shower happened. The neighbors hurried in with every kind of little package and a tempting cake.

Sipping their coffee and admiring the gifts were Mmes. Betty Grandpre, Vannie Pancake, Esther Wordley, Dolores Meyers, Margie Allen, Tabu Walker, and Dolly Merritt.

Enthusiasm continues to mount as arrangements for the PTA Hi Jinks at Carl Steele School fall into place.

A few novel developments have emerged, one of which is a booth at which sponges will be tossed at an unusually good-natured individual.

The infant care mentioned last week will not be provided but there will be cartoons for the little folks to watch. These will be shown by the Boy Scouts who are also planning a dart game and corn cob-tossing concession.

Other booths and their operators are:

Ghost Room—Mary Crockett and Betty Mann, FR 9-7416.

White Elephant—Marian Erving, FR 2-9412.

Cake-walk—Joan Fish, FR 9-8576.

Donuts and Coffee—Jean Steele, Fern Beresford, FR 9-9287.

Coin Pitch—Bobby Barackman, Nell Hawkins, FR 4-7655.

Fish Pond—Lucy Pierce, FR 4-4531.

Tickets—Janice Fowler, Kay Duncan, FR 9-9700.

At the door each child will be given a free ticket and as he leaves he will receive a prize bag. It is hoped this activity will take the place of trick or treating on Halloween. Unless accompanied by adults it is best to have the children off the street after dark.

If you particularly enjoy seeing the children and adults, too, in costume you might like to help in one of the above-mentioned booths. Who could "mask" for anything more?

The teen-age dances would not be possible without the Youth Activity Committee of the Southwest Park Civic Assn. John Caulkins heads the committee. The members are Mrs. Warren Pancake, Mrs. Harold Shawgo, Mrs. Millie Jurco, Edward Hill, Mrs. Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin, and Mr. and Mrs. Wiebel. The Halloween dance is set Friday.

Battalion Chief Robert Lucas of the Torrance Fire Dept. will show a film at the next Southwest Park Civic Assn. meeting at Carl Steele School Nov. 6.

Halloween Dance Set Saturday by Democrats

Torrance Democrats will gather for a Halloween dance Saturday night at 8:30 at the Torrance Democratic Headquarters at El Prado and Border Aves.

All Democrats are invited to the dance. Dancers may come in costume or not as they choose.

One gay group dining at the Pen and Quill Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fields, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cheatham, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rix, all of Cadison St.

If you noticed a brief gust of wind the 13th it might have been Jill Bowles attempting to de-flame the five candles on her birthday cake.

The friends who trooped in to play and sing were Colleen Traynor, Gayle and Glen Mitchell, Earl, Doree, Jimmy Van Fleet, Eddie Wilson, Mike and David Kelly, and Jackie Bowles. "Jack-and Jill" are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bowles, 4719 Narrot St.
