Mr., Mrs. Ronald Duckett Are Honored at Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Potter entertained approximately 200 guests at a reception last Saturday evening at their home, 22525 Monroe, complimenting their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald V. Duckett, who were married Oct. 20 at 2 p.m. in Phoenix, Arizona. The bride is the former Wanda Lou Potter.

Wedding bells were used at vantage points throughout the rooms used in entertaining. The lace covered table was centered with a huge pink and white wedding cake ornamented with wedding bells and lilies of the valley.

The guests were greeted by the newlyweds and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Potter and Mr. and Mrs. Burt Duckett of Carmichael, Calif.

For the reception the bride wore her wedding gown of white lace with pink satin trim. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Duckett was graduated from the Banning High school.

She is also a member of Job's Daughters, Bethel 109.

Mr. Duckett is a graduate of the Monterey Park High school. He served two years with the United States Army and is now employed by the Ford Motor Co. on Terminal Island.

The couple, who were married by Judge Stanley Kimball, are now established at 2251 Canal Ave., Long Beach.

Gala Party Fetes Susan

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Swigart, 1745 Fern Ave., entertained a group of children last Saturday afternoon at their home complimenting their daughter, Susan, who was celebrating her third birthday.

The Halloween motif was used in decorating. The children played games after which Susan opened her gifts. The Halloween birthday cake was then served with ice cream.

Susan's guests were Terry Lee, Kathy and Linda Eads, Jill and Joe Dean, Jan Carter, Lori Higgins, Lori Kasten, Randy and Tony Rumbo, and Steven Swigart, a brother.

Special guests were Susan's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Swigart and Mrs. Lillian Eads, and her great-grandmother, Mrs. Ellen Harkanson.

Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rumbo and Mmes. Irwin Kasten, Ronald Higgins and Jack Dean.

EASTERN STAR MEETS, TONIGHT

Grand Chapter reports and initiation are on the agenda for tonight's meeting of Torrance Chapter 380, Order of the Eastern Star, to be held in the Masonic Temple, 2336 Cabrillo Ave., at 8:00.

Worthy Matron Dorothy Fyken and Worthy Patron Edward Morgan will preside. Phyllis Peverley is chairman of the social hour which follows the meeting. All members of the chapter and visiting members of the order are extended an invitation to attend.

Judy Wolf is Delegate to National Y-Teen Conclave

Miss Judy Wolf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don B. Wolf of 21804 Halldale Ave., Torrance, was selected to represent the Torrance Y-Teens at the National Y-Teen Conference to be held in Washington, D.C., and New York City on Nov. 11 through 17.

Judy will attend the annual National World Fellowship Service at the Washington Cathedral, have a grand tour of the capital, study various government departments and celebrate the 75th anniversary of the Y-Teens. On Nov. 15 the whole conference group will entrain for New York City where they will visit the United Nations' building, hear briefings and hold a workshop on bringing the conference information home. There will also be shopping and a Broadway show.

Judy, popular senior at Narbonne High School, is the Y-Teen president of the Beta Tri-Y. She is vice president of the Student Body and the ex-chief justice of the Student Court. Judy is a member of the Scholarship Society, historian of the Girls' Athletic Association, a member of the Jane Addams, Letter Girls, and chairman of the assembly committee. Recently she was chosen as Red Feather ambassador and is active in the St. Andrew's Church youth group.

Dress Party Is Given by Realty Ladies

The Halloween party given by the Women's Council of the Torrance-Lomita Realty Board last Saturday evening was a huge success. Approximately 75 people attended, many of them in excellent costumes. William Baker, husband of President Irene Baker, won first prize with an authentic Zulu costume; Cecil Alter, dressed as a game hunter, won second prize, and Carol Nelson was the winner of the third prize in a Raggedy Ann dress.

The children's prizes went to Richard Connert and Janet Patterson. Mrs. Howard Percy won the door prize. Mary Toombs and Rose Craig did a real bang-up job as auctioneers and Kay and Al England had charge of the games, with assistance from Maribel Connert.

Almost all who attended were put in jail by Grace Haggott and then were sentenced by Fred Hansen.

Edna Reed was in charge of decorations; Mary Toombs and Rose Craig, auctioneers; Maribel Connert, grab bags; Kay and El England, games. Others assisting were Elva Conrad, Grace Haggott, Carol Nelson, Georgia Marlow, Eliza Travoli, Pearl Jacobs, D'Loris Litten, Irene Decker and Irene Baker.
