Las Vecinas Holds Meeting With Husbands as Visitors

By EM FRENCH FR 5-1390
Members of Las Vecinas met for their November meeting tonight, with their husbands as guests. The program, chosen especially for same, was presented by Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Van Mourich. They showed a magnificent color film, "Which Road to India" with music and sound recorded on the scene. This is an excellent film of a hazardous 16,000-mile drive from Europe through the Middle East to India.

The club's own choir, conducted by Kathy Harvey, was on hand to entertain the guests, too. They sang three numbers, "Caricoa," by Vincent Youmans; "Look for the Silver Lining," by Jerome Kerns, and "Italian Street Song," by Victor Herbert. Dorothy Creighton sang the solo part in this last number.

The Hollywood Riviera Homeowners' Assn. is going to give you the chance you've been waiting for—haven't you been hankering to get inside the Plush Horse? They're having a dinner there Monday, Dec. 3rd. It's $3.50 per person, and everyone is invited. For tickets, reservations, or more information, call Mrs. Watts, FRontier 5-3287, or Mrs. Fleener, FRontier 5-2988.

Jeanne Marie Gardner was one month old Nov. 13th and she thinks its about time the world knew about her. Her dad and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler Gardner, 324 Calle de Madrid, have two other children, Donnie, 7, and Kathy Ann, 4.

The Village continues to grow, new stores and offices every few weeks. There's a new "law office," that of Attorney Robert Fife, 279 Via Linda Vista, who formerly had his office in Long Beach.

Lena Howey's daughter, Nancy Crabb, is home this week, with her three little boys, Tommy, Steven, and Mark. Nancy's husband, Capt. Cecil Crabb, has returned to George Air Force Base, up near Victorville, but Nancy and the boys shall remain all week.

Sandra Baird had an unpleasant week end. She had four wisdom teeth extracted, and she'll tell you that it wasn't much fun. She's back in school, now, rehearsing for the senior play, in which she'll appear on Dec. 1st.

Our sympathy is extended to Alfred Artuso, whose father, Anthony Artuso, of Santa Barbara, passed away Saturday, Nov. 3rd.

Garden Chatter

By LORING BIGELOW

Last year was the first year that the All American gladiolus selections were announced and we told you about them—the remarkable glistening clear light red variety Royal Stewart, and the delicate colored snowy white variety Apple Blossom. These two varieties were widely acclaimed all over the nation.

Now the new 1957 releases are being offered and at low prices which are approximately half of the last years cost. These two winners are called Maytime and Caribbean. Maytime is a graceful fluffed deep pure pink ruffled variety with contrasting large white throat and according to the press releases brings a freshness seldom seen in gladiolus. This brightly colored glad grows to a height of about 5 1/2 feet so give it room. When in gorgeous full bloom Maytime has over 20 florets open at once. It is very easy to grow. Caribbean is the first dis-tinely ruffled blue gladiolus. The delicate blue florets of this exciting novelty present themselves in formal double row placement of extremely long flowerheads. The unusual coloring of blue velvet petals, with a deep violet throat and small cream spur, make this glad a sure fire winner and one that will receive lots of comment in your garden.

Check with your nursery and garden supply dealer on these and other varieties which are arriving now in their salesrooms.

Open House Slated Today At St. James

St. James School will hold open house today from 2 to 4 p.m. in closing its observance of American Education Week. Sister Mary Fintan, principal, announced that the public is invited to see the work accomplished by the students which number 608 from first grade through the eighth grade.

In keeping with the theme, "Good Catholic Schools for a Strong America," there will be exhibits, panel discussions, and compositions on the various daily topics.

Mrs. Charles Kelly, home and school chairman, invites visitors to enjoy refreshments which will be served during the observance.

Room mothers will welcome guests. They are as follows: First grades, Mrs. Allan Harkins and Mrs. John Morrison; second grades, Mrs. William Gass and Mrs. Gordon Moon; third grades, Mrs. Arthur Linaker and Mrs. E. Mileham; fourth grades, Mrs. I. Ryan and Mrs. G. Lemieu; fifth grade, Mrs. E. Punara; sixth grade, Mrs. Roger St. Marie; seventh grade, Mrs. Robert Herzog; eighth grade, Mrs. Jack Glaser.

Temple Plans Israel Film

In keeping with the current events of the troubled Middle East, a series of films on Israel will be shown at the next general meeting of Temple Menorah, 112 1/2 N. Catalina, Redondo Beach, Wednesday at 8:30 p.m.

The films will depict the life of the frontier settlers of Israel. There will also be a film on the up-to-date city of Tel Aviv.

In conjunction with these films, there will be a short business meeting presided over by Benjamin Kaufman, Temple president. Refreshments and a social hour will complete the evening.

SALMON WATERS Washington Fisheries produce about five-ninths of the total supply of salmon for the United States.

Rotarians To Watch Title Film

"This Is My Land," Title Insurance and Trust Co.'s film about Southern California, will be shown at the Thursday, Nov. 29th meeting of the Torrance Rotary Club, Henry C. Harper, program chairman, announced today.

The meeting is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. at the Woman's Club, 1422 Engracia Ave., Torrance, Harper stated. Tracing the history of land from early rancho days, the 20-minute sound and color film points out how the many actions of people can affect their ownership to real property. How the title company determines the true owners and the part the firm plays in making land a safe commodity to buy and sell is told by the movie.

Parts of California's colorful history and beautiful scenic shots of the Southland are included in the film.
