Avid Herald Readers Trapped On Front Lawn in Bathrobes

By VERA C. WRIGHT FR 2-2288
 Ruth and Perry Patrick can't wait to get their Sunday morning HERALD, but that fact caused them a chilly two hours on their front lawn in bathrobes last week.

At 6 a.m., Perry got up to get the paper. He noted a special hibiscus bloom in the front yard and called his wife to take a look at the lovely specimen.
 After admiring the blossom, the Patricks started to go back into the house, but discovered that the door was locked and neither had a house key.
 It was 8:30 before they managed to pry open a window without breaking the panes or damaging anything. In the future, they have sworn to carry keys with them at all times.

The TV Balloras family, 18305 Amie St., is bursting with pride and no wonder, with new son, Richard, to show off.

Gracing the "Spark-plug" table of the Beauty Counselor luncheon was Mildred Westmoreland of 18305 Roslin Ave.
 Others enjoying lunch at Carolina Pines but not at the same table were Marv Espinosa, Mary Craig, Sally Wisdom and Gene Smith.

Twelve-year-old Freddie MacKenzie celebrated his birthday on Nov. 10 by bowling the entire morning at the South Bay Bowling Center and rode his brand new bicycle all afternoon.

Grandfather Meyers enjoyed viewing Freddie's many gifts including slacks, dress shirt, tie, cards galore and money as well as a new square head for his drum. The celebration ended with Mom and Pop MacKenzie treating him to a drive-in movie.

Enid Rusted, 18236 Roslin Ave., served mince meat and pumpkin pie a-la-mode and coffee to Therese Schuster, Wanda Hart, Sarah Ward, Alyce MacKenzie, Claudine Blake, Sarah Hooker and Vera Wright, at the conclusion of the Nov. 12 canasta party.

Sarah R. Hooker took home first prize while Claudine R. Blake welcomed the mistletoe kissing ring as booby prize.

The Glenn Blakes, 16825 Thornburgh Ave., celebrated 12 years of marriage on Monday, Nov. 12.

After a two-week sojourn in Mexico City, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Herbert recommend the Hotel Del Prado. This couple has been married 15 years and celebrated their vacation in Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bond entertained 14 out-of-town friends from Ohio with dinner at a local restaurant and a visit to Marineland and Disneyland.

A very happy birthday to lovely 14-year-old Ericka Schuster who received many lovely new clothes to wear on her natal day, Nov. 13.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Hopkins entertained for their houseguests from New York. Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hubert, Pinoche, poker, gin rummy and charades proved most interesting to the 18 guests in attendance. That is, next to the barbecued ham and beef sandwiches which were consumed by the dozens!

Jane and Eddie Morris and Angie Leonard all enjoyed the Spanish dancing of Carmen Amaya at the Huntington Hartford Theater and met Bob Leonard at the Moulin Rouge where they enjoyed a late snack and dancing.

It had been planned as a surprise for Bob to celebrate his birthday. At the last minute Bob was called back to work and got away just in time to blow out his birthday candles and dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Robins celebrated their 14th wedding anniversary with luncheon at Marineland and dinner at the Thistle Inn. Brand new provincial furniture is their anniversary gift to each other.

Mary Frances Hon and lovely Sandra Colby were quipped to the local bowling club by that young man about town, Wayne Wright.

You should have heard Mrs. Samuel Mowe and Mrs. R. Stremel reminiscing about their va-

...cations, especially when they discovered they had been practically the same resorts at the same time!

Just a few miles separated the two families during the entire vacation trip!

Demonstrator Arlene Bishop presented an Emmons Jewelry Show at the A. L. MacKenzie homestead on Nov. 9.

Those whom Alice treated to pie-la-mode were Therese Schuster, Kay Muramoto, Miyeko Yokayama, Claudine Blake, Ulla Costa, Marge Reamer, Pat Dohner, Jesse Cable, Grace Gray and lovable Grandmother Paton.

Although it might have seemed that the entire neighborhood was getting rid of their kindergarten age youngsters, it wasn't true. They were all headed towards the wiener roast given for Nonie and Michael Wisdom at noon yesterday.

Ethel Audrey Herring, 18312 Roslin Ave., considers herself the luckiest girl in the world and why not? She not only celebrated her 28th birthday on Nov. 13, but was presented with a brand new modern large stove by hubby, Paul.

A jump rope is a harmless toy except when tied across the porch when you are trying to sneak in at 2 a.m.

Reason for that statement by Paul Hunsaker for he has two black and blue knees and a scratched cheek to prove it. The ironic part of it all was that he really worked late and was trying to be real sweet and not disturb wife, Jean, or daughter, June!

Sewing sessions are going on all over the El Nido School district, while the El Nido PTAs prepares for their Dec. 12 banquets. I have already seen 11 aprons I just cannot do without, so must remember to wear blindfolds from now on!

Vernon Burch is up and around once again after just being discharged from the hospital. His wife, Helen, is on the mend again also.

Two Roslin Ave. residents celebrating their birthdays this past month were Frances Hynes and Sally Wisdom.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Adams couldn't bear to part with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Judd, from Pennsylvania when they were set to fly back home after a two-week vacation. For those of you who have missed Harry and Joanne, they will be back by next Wednesday!

Penny and Billy Wagner have proven that there is no finer ice cream than the homemade variety. They made a gallon of several different flavors.
