Reflections
By J. HUGH SHERPEY, JR.
WRITE THAT LETTER

Someone said it costs 10c a mile to drive an automobile—we drive hundreds of miles for enjoyment; we think nothing of adding a room, buying a television, indulging our hobby and yet the least expensive pursuit, the one which gives infinite pleasure is most often pushed aside. I mean a letter to relatives or friends.

That letter can be crammed with love and affection.
It is the handclasp across the Nation and seas, it is the smile that brings a smile to the recipient. And yet we procrastinate. The cost is 3c, but there isn't anything that will bring the happiness that this pretty little stamp will carry.

A friend I know with many, many friends, writes one letter, has it duplicated, signs each one and has a correspondence filled with pleasant experiences, homey happenings and news of a family.

Write that letter. It will mean a lot to someone.
P.S.: Letters of commendation are highly prized; we have many.
