

Delta Gamma Unit Installs

Delta Gamma chapter of the Epsilon Sigma Alpha international sorority met on Monday, Nov. 12, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Allen Beresford, 19910 Mansel.

Yearbooks were on the agenda with various impressions of the group expressed in what the sorority means to them.

The group recently installed officers at a dinner meeting in a local restaurant. They are: president, Mrs. Neil Doyle; vice president, Mrs. Gus Dodos; recording secretary, Mrs. Betty Mosher; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Beresford; finance commissioner, Mrs. E. C. Osterlind; decoration chairman, Mrs. W. J. Bullock; sergeant at arms, Mrs. Marguerite Kelsey.

The next meeting, a Christmas party, will be held at the home of Mrs. Bullock, 1323 Teri Ave., on Dec. 10.

Delta Zetas

South Bay Delta Zeta Alumnae met at the Van Clief home Wednesday.

In December the group will have their traditional Christmas party. At this meeting each member brought samples of their choice Christmas goodies and also the recipe for the members.

Widely known cotillion director and teacher of dance, Miss Helen Knight, of Pasadena, in association with the Jan Darian Studios, will give instruction to fit the theme of each occasion and demonstrate the social amenities as an integral part of the series. Membership in the Fortnighter Cotillion is through the recommendation of the sponsors.

Patrons and their participating children are: Mr. and Mrs. Laurence T. Dailey, and children, Gail, Laurie, and Louis; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan E. Dana Fay Has Birthday

Santa isn't going to crowd out Dana Fay's birthday this year. They celebrated his ninth birthday a month early. Dana, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fay, 5405 Linda Dr., has felt the Christmas season deflected a little too much of the attention that ought to go to a young man's birthday—so also it put a crimp in the picture so far as presents were concerned.

The guests had birthday cake and ice cream before proceeding to the theatre to see "Fantasia." After the picture, the birthday boy and his friends returned to the Fay home to play with the birthday presents.

Guests invited to share the early birthday were Tommy Stewart, Ronny Johnson, Stevie Shott, Billy Betus, Kenny Hyder, Tommy and Billy Schuchman, Mike Hodges, Allan Spies, Timmy Pinkney, John Aldred, and Billy Malan.

FAMILY REUNION

Mr. and Mrs. John McVey and children, Patricia, John and Karen, 920 Kornblum, attended a family reunion in San Diego, over the holiday week end. They visited the children's grandparents, Capt. and Mrs. W. L. Irvine and Col. and Mrs. John F. McVey. The family dinner was held at the Admiral Kidd Club.

PARENTS HERE

Mr. and Mrs. James Greer, 142 Via Alameda, had as their holiday and week end guests Mr. Greer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Greer, of Phoenix, and his brother, Richard Greer, of Los Angeles.

Entertain

Three days of festivities marked the holiday week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Foley, 1634 W. 20th St. South Shores. Thanksgiving dinner guests were Mr. Foley's mother, Mrs. M. C. Smith of Las Vegas and Miss Mary Doorley, Costa Mesa.

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Foley entertained Mr. and Mrs. Bill Montgomery and Mr. and Mrs. Hal Smith at cocktails before going to the Palladium where they attended the Holy Family Adoption party.

Saturday evening another group of guests enjoyed cocktails and a buffet at the Foley home.

Fortnighter Cotillion Opens Series With Holiday Dance

Fortnighter Cotillion met last Friday evening for a pre-season party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence T. Dailey, 179 Via los Miradores.

A festive holiday dance will begin the series on Friday evening, Dec. 7, at the Redondo Beach Woman's Club, 400 S. Broadway. The Cotillion is composed of two groups, the younger group including children from the fourth through sixth grades. The older group will include the seventh and eighth grade boys and girls.

Thematic parties to fit the social seasons and types of dance covered will provide a comprehensive understanding of California's famous casual parties, such as the Hawaiian Luau, Western Night, Mexican Hayride, A Night in Havana, and Argentine Argosy. The formal parties will be the Christmas Ball, the Valentine Dance, a pre-Lent Mardis Gras
