OF BETHLEHEM

The move would be augustation. The move would be augustation of the commission meeting, Chief Lucas, who heads up the city's fire prevention bureau, said fire department of ficials have decided that location of the fire station there would be in line with the airport expansion plans proceed in the recently adopted master plan.

The move would be augustation.

The move would be augmented by improvements in the water main system in the area also, members of the airport board were told.

Basing figures on cost of the new Station No. 4 at Pacific Coast Hwy. and Calle Mayor, Lucas said it would probably cost about $52,000 to build a

Record Sales Reported By Alter Realty

Sales of three quarters of a million dollars from Jan. 1st to April 1st with a total of properties sold during this time through the Alter Multiple system, have been announced by Lee R. Dawson, sales manager for Alter at 1436 Marcelina Ave.

"The Alter Realty & Insurance Co., which has 11 offices and 50 bonded salesmen wants to thank the people of Torrance whom they have had the privilege of serving." Dawson said.

In order to furnish adequate services to our clients in this area, Alter Realty & Insurance has just purchased the Real Estate office operated by Hans P. Norby at 1715 Arlington Ave., and has leased the offices occupied by Torrance Real Estate and Investments at 23850 S. Hawthorne Ave., is Walteria," Dawson added.

These offices are now operating as branch offices. Salesmanager of the Arlington office will be Gladys Spray, and the Hawthorne Blvd. office is being managed by Dick Miller, who is a native of Torrance.
