By BARNEY GLAZER

For songs of inspiration, Joni James sings a series of spellbinders on MGM's album "Give Us This Day." Heard are: "The Lord's Prayer," "Bless This House," "The Rosary," "I Believe," "Ave Maria," "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You," and others. Here, Miss James, one of America's most loved singers, sings songs that inspire love for our fellowmen.

Stravinsky: The Rite of Spring (Le Sacre du Printemp) is a new RCA Victor Red Seal album with Pierre Monteux conducting the Paris Conservatoire Orchestra. This work deals with the worship of the forces of nature by primitive man. The ballet suite is divided into two parts.

"Byron Janis Plays Chopin" is an RCA Victor Red Seal new orthophonic high fidelity recording. This is the same Byron Janis who became a soloist with the NBC Symphony at the tender age of 15. Now in his twenties, he is highly acclaimed for his artistry. This album encompasses virtually the whole of Chopin's creative life from the "Sonata No. 2 in B-flat Minor, Op. 35," to the
"Scherzo No. 3 in C-Sharp Minor, Op. 39."

"Steady Date with Tommy Sands" is a new Capitol album tribute to this popular young singer who has been able to wiggle himself into popular demand without a wiggle. In this album, Tommy sings about dating, dances, school, optimistic kids, et al. Heard are: "Goin Steady," "Too Young," "Graduation Day," "Gonna Get a Girl," and "Walkin' My Baby Back Home."

"Alone" is Judy Garland's newest album for Capitol. It is the music of being alone sung with a heart-catching tone as only Judy can sing it. Once again Judy displays the true range of her amazing versatility. This is an extraordinary collection including: "By Myself," "Little Girl Blue," "Me and My Shadow," "Among My Souvenirs," "Mean to Me," "Just a Memory," "I Get the Blues When It Rains," and
"Happy New Year."

Arthur Fiedler conducts the Boston Pops Orchestra on an RCA Victor Red Seal album and "nuf sed!" This one is great.
Heard are: "Rossini-Respighi —La Boutique Fantasque," an enchanted toy shop filled with mechanical wonders; "Ibert: Divertissement," a tongue-in-cheek satire; and "Piston: The Incredible Flutist (Suite form the Ballet)," about an incredible flutist who charms everyone within earshot, particularly the ladies.

"A Swingin' Affair!" is Frank Sinatra's newest Capitol album. In this one you'll recall the song from your happy past but you may find that the beat is brighter now, the orchestra sounds richer and more exciting, and the voice is Frankie Boy's. Heard are: "Night and Day," "I Got Plenty o' Nuttin'," "Stars Fell on Alabama," "The Lonesome Road," "If I had You," "I Got It Bad and That Ain't Good," and "From This Moment on."

Robert Merrill sings "Famous Baritone Arias" on an RCA Victor Red Seal album, while Vincenzo Bellezza and Jonel Perleia conducts the Rome Opera House Orchestra. Today, Merrill is a lyric baritone without peer. Ten famous works are represented in this album, including the familiar from "Rigoletto," "Traviata" and "Trovatore." Six of the numbers have never been sung by Mr. Merrill in the opera house.

ment spenders in Washing-
