People and Places

If your wife happens to suffer from recurrent boredom as the result of endless rounds of meal preparation and you can't afford to take her to a psychiatrist, you can take her out to dinner at one of the many fine restaurants in the City and Surf area. This has its advantage over psychiatric treatment, too. You get to share in the enjoyment of dining out, you automatically become a very thoughtful guy in your wife's eyes and you'll be an absolute hero to the kids.

All of us living in City and Surf area are extremely fortunate in the choice afforded us of eating establishments. There is something for every pocketbook and every taste. We even have restaurants which make it possible for you to eat out and still stay home. This ought to solve the problem for the "I-hate-to-get-dressed" crowd.

For the folks who like to dance with their dining, before, during and after, we heartily recommend Vivian Laird's out Long Beach way. Vivian has special prices for the little ones and complete dinners from $2 to $4.

Caprino's in downtown Torrance offers a truly unforgettable evening. Tops in dinners and drinks, Caprino's is an ideal choice for throwing that little surprise party for the guy or the gal's birthday, or to commemorate that wedding anniversary you almost forgot last year.

If you're like me, you get a yen for some real good Chinese food every once in a while. This is a craving that can best be satisfied at Ding How's in Torrance. Don't let that yen catch up with you on Wednesday, though. Ding How is closed up. On Wednesday they write copy for the messages in those famous Chinese Fortune Cookies.

Genial Charley Gotts is your host at Daniels Cafe in downtown Torrance. Charley welcomes you for any and every meal and you can be sure, just like Westinghouse, of a cordial reception with your food and drink in a pleasant atmosphere.

Some people start thinking about how good the dessert is going to be while they are still in the middle of a splendid main course. More and more of these City and Surf folk are finding their own pies and what pies they are. Don't make it a late date at Zim's—they open at 5:30 a.m. and like to quit at 7:30 p.m. whether they are tired or not.

Sukiyaki, anyone? It's terrific and none better than that served at the Ginza, 3828 West Slauson. In traditional, Oriental atmosphere you can satisfy your palate with sukiyaki and tempura dinners at popular prices, partake of your favorite beverage, dance if you feel like it, and most certainly enjoy the wonderful floor show. On Monday the Ginza shuts down. So you sukiyaki addicts plan accordingly.

If you haven't already discovered the joys of pizza pie, don't delay. We are extremely fortunate in having several topnotch pizzerias by City and Surf. Nardone's at 1810 S. Catalina in Redondo, and Maddalone's at 316 Avenue I, Redondo. Both of these pizzerias specialize in take-out orders. Phone a few minutes before you leave the house and they'll be ready, piping hot.

Space does not permit mention of all the City and Surf's fine restaurants and their specialties at one time. We'll tell you more about those we have already mentioned and many more fine spots in future columns.

People and Places will be a weekly feature of your HERALD City and Surf Dining and Entertainment Guide. We'll tell you what our recommendations are and some favorite anecdotes of the local chefs and drink dispensers and who is doing what along restaurant row.

In the entertainment field we'll endeavor to keep you posted on your best bets. Your columnist is particularly enthusiastic about the great community interest in Little Theater work. It's pretty wonderful to see how these neighbors and friends pitch in to make some of the finest plays and musical comedies available to us. And those that I have been have been first class from the thespian ability of the principals to the excellence of the sets and the dexterity of the stagehands. If you can't make it to Broadway this season, gather up the wife and plan a dinner-theater date. You won't have to leave the City and Surf vicinity to avail yourself of the best in both departments.

—George, the Gadabout.

Food Sale Scheduled

A food sale will be held Sunday after all masses at St. Margaret Mary's Catholic Church, Lomita. St. Francis Guild will be in charge.

Torrance Man Loses Motorcycle to Fire

A Torrance man, Robert Ryan, 22, 808 Teri Ave., lost his motorcycle Sunday as it caught fire while he was climbing a hill near Palos Verdes Dr. North and Narbonne Ave. County firemen extinguished the blaze, apparently started when some gas dripped on the hot engine. Ryan said the vehicle caught fire while he was going up the hill and he quickly leaped off while it rolled backward. Loss was estimated at $450.

Fire Damages Garage

Fire caused some damage to a garage at 2650 Brian St. Sunday, but was quickly extinguished by a garden hose. Torrance firemen reported. The blaze started under a work bench at the Rex Breezely home.

THE ADAMS' AND THE FORTSYTHES' are one wonderful happy family, for whose one goes, the other follows, for every day in the year is like Mother's Day to them. Shown from left to right is David Adams, Karen Forsythe, Mrs. (Wm.) Jeanette Adams (mother of David and also Brian on her lap) and she lives in Torrance. Next is Mrs. (G.H.) Clara Ann Forsythe (Mother of Jeanette and Susie.) Mrs. (LaRoy) Lucille Forsythe, who lives in Los Angeles, (mother of Mrs. Jeanette, Mrs. Charlotte Forsythe shown seated next to her.) All these lovely ladies are civic-minded and are also Lincolns. They all agreed with Mrs. Lucille Forsythe when she said: "Our family have enjoyed the BBO food served at BBO Pete for the past several years."
