

WITH BEST WISHES . . . Miss Linda Thayne, left, retiring honored queen of Job's Daughters, Bethel 50, turns over the gavel to the Bethel's new Honored Queen Jeannette Wright. "God Is Love," was the theme of the colorful installation ceremony held at the Masonic Temple last Saturday evening and attended by a large gathering of relatives and friends. Tommy Foster served as the master of ceremonies.

Installation Ritual Will Crown the New Queen

"God is Love" was the installation ritual theme as Jeannette Wright was seated as honored queen of Torrance Job's Daughters, Bethel 50.

The choir and officers walked through a beautiful red heart and the girls carried red and white flowers with streamers of the same color, complimenting their white robes.

Miss Wright succeeds Linda Thayne, retiring honored queen.

Mrs. Pearl Thayne, guardian, and Leonard Babcock associate guardian, were introduced by Thomas Foster, master of ceremonies.

Miss Thayne was escorted as Susan Babcock sang "Somebody Up There Likes Me."

New officers who were installed by Miss Thayne are Kay Smith, senior princess; Sharon Neely, junior princess; Mary Margaret Blount, guide; Bonnie Kail, marshal.

Other officers are Laverne Lewis, chaplain; Carla Osterlind, recorder; Marsha Tappin, treasurer; Carolyn Lunden, librarian; Jackie Scherer, musician; Nancy Hornbeck, junior custodian; Peggy Neely, inner guard; Gayle Hay, outer-guard; Karen Witt, Glenda Thaw, Donna Mangiagli, Karen Crossman, Beverly Orend, messengers-appointments; Georgia Powell, assistant recorder; Pat Alter, assistant musician; Barbara Chase, page; Diane Hadix, electrician; Diane Simonian, obligation chairman;

Carol Lee Denton, choir director; Barbara Heyns, banner bearer.

The past honored queen's jewel was presented to Miss Thayne by the new queen. Jewel bearers were Anita and Norma Foster.

Before returning home, the couple will combine business with pleasure, making stops in Chicago, New York, Washington, D. C., and Boston.

8 Years Old

Michael Donish celebrated his eighth birthday with a party last Saturday afternoon at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Donish, 1629 Greenwood Ave. A number of games with prizes were played and the boys were served a hot dog supper.

The decorated birthday cake was served with ice cream. Michael's guests were Michael Brennan, Edward Hock, Thomas Le Wand and James Campbell.

Speaker Tells Of Barter Association

Leo Shaw, Lomita lecturer, spoke to the El Monte Breakfast Club last week on the subject, "Barter Unlimited."

The El Monte group sponsors the Handicapped Self-aid Assn. and Shaw's talk showed how the non-profit barter association has been making available to the handicapped every conceivable service.

Services offered include auto repair, zipper replacement, obstetrician, mortician and others without cash for the service.

Shaw, a Latin-American attorney, who studied cooperative movements abroad for a number of years, now devotes a large part of his time to helping the handicapped and needy to help themselves.

Shower for Bride-Elect Gala Affair

"A Bicycle Built for Two" was the theme for a bridal shower honoring Miss Judy Patterson, bride-elect of William Szieff, May 24, in the home of Mrs. Bill Green, 1613 W. 227th St., Torrance. Mrs. Hugh Dooley was co-hostess.

A miniature bicycle for two with bride and groom bedecked in bridal attire was the centerpiece for the table. Multi-colored daisies were used throughout the dining room.

Entertainment for the evening included "This Is Your Life" program which presented scenes from the bride's life beginning with her first picture. It was climaxed by a mock wedding dramatized by young friends of the honoree. Mrs. Kathryn Mulhern and Mrs. Louise Melton were in charge of the novel program.

Prior to the opening of the gifts, Mrs. Arlene Walatka, Mrs. Rachel Kosoff presented a devotional in music and words. Refreshments of punch, ice cream, and cake were served to the following guests:

Mrs. Louise Melton and Paula; Mrs. Kathryn Mulhern and Elaine; Mrs. Jessie Gloyne and Ruth and Nadine; Mrs. Lorene Davenport and Diana; Mmes. Carolyn Such, Joyce Wallner, Helen Foster, Edna Hall, Carmen Ogden, Erna Patterson, Vi Davis, Eunice
