BRIDGE NIGHT AT Y TUESDAY

YWCA bridge class members have been invited to a Bridge Night to be held at the Y on Tuesday evening, June 11, at 8 p.m. Bobbie Howell, bridge teacher, is in charge of the party. There will be some tournament play and plans for the organization of an afternoon bridge group will be discussed.

Edith Puls Weds Gary Grant In Candlelight Chapel Rites

In an early evening candlelight ceremony at the Wayfarer's chapel recently the Rev. Franklin Blackmur united in marriage Miss Edith Mae Puls, daughter of Mrs. Gertrude Puls of Oakhurst, formerly of Hollywood Riviera, and Gary Edward Grant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Grant of Bakersfield.

George Puls accompanied his sister to the altar. She wore a Cahill original of imported Swiss lace overlaying white net. Her fingertip illusion veil fell from a white lace crown, embroidered with pearls and crystals. Her jewelry was a strand of pearls, gift from the bridegroom. Small white orchids encircled a large white orchid, to form the bridal bouquet.

Miss Linda Howsley of WALTERIA, wearing pale shrimp colored chiffon, was the maid of honor while Miss Peggy Howsley, in lavender chiffon, was the bridesmaid. Both girls wore crowns of tulle to match their dresses and carried carnation bouquets.

Little Kim Alyce Bernard carried the two rings. She wore white lace over pink.

Roy Westcott served as best man and second attendant was George Puls. Ushers were Steve Smith and Brad Dixon.

Gay Grant, sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book.

A reception was held for the 100 guests at the American legion hall in Redondo. Assisting were Mesmes Bill Bernard, Armand Dixon, Karl Hodson, and Kenneth Detman.

The couple then departed for a honeymoon with destination unannounced.

The bride attended Torrance schools and the bridegroom attended Redondo and Bakersfield schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bonnell, 814 Madrid, are grandparents of the bridegroom.

Arts-Crafts Gathers at Hardin Home

A short business meeting was conducted by President, Mrs. Vivian Cook and then all members engaged in decorating plates, designing "Gay Nighty Men" to match the figures that were made the month before.

Two guests were in attendance, Mrs. Zelma Miller and Mrs. Edith Penfold, mother of Mrs. Leila Everly.

The tables were beautifully decorated with handmade pale green candles and lovely colorful fresh flowers. Delicious refreshments were enjoyed by Helen Miller, Bettina Miller, Addie Parks, Florence Childs, Ethyl Peverley, Ruth Hardin, Helen Carpenter, Mae Jones, Cora Bohrer, Frances Snodgrass, Hazel Ward, Leila Everly, Leah Arterburn, Rolive Bever, Mary McDonald, Vivian Cook, Ruth Kilgore and Emily Middleton.

The next regular meeting will be held June 21 at the home of Addie Parks with Maybel Banks as co-hostess.

MADDYS RETURN FROM VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Merle M. Maddy, 1924 Gramercy, have returned from an extensive five weeks vacation. The couple took the train from Los Angeles to Chicago and then flew to Flint, Mich., where they picked up a new car. Driving south to Stuebenville, Ohio, they spent seven days with their daughter, Marjorie and her family. The party made a trip to Niagara Falls for an overnight stay.

Their next stop was Havelock, N. C., where they spent a week with their son, Marvin and his family.

The travelers then went to Greenville, S. C., where they picked up their daughter, Miss Grace Maddy and two friends, Miss Erma Roberts and Miss Carlson who had been attending the Bob Young University.
