Area Schools Graduations

Graduation ceremonies will be held this week at three Los Angeles Schools in this area.

At Narbonne High School, Lt. Col. Frank O. Hinckley will discuss "You and America's Future" at ceremonies to be held at 5 p.m. on Friday. Some 200 students are slated to get their diplomas at the rites.

Narbonne Junior High ceremonies will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday on the athletic field, with 521 students slated to get their sheepskins. Principal Herbert Morey will hand out the diplomas.

Steven M. White Junior High School will fet 308 graduates on Friday at 10:30 a.m., with Principal Albert Cartwright performing the honors. The Narbonne speaker, Col.

Hinckley, a 1936 graduate of the school, will be honored at a Thursday noon luncheon at the Wayfarers Restaurant. The luncheon, sponsored by the Lomita Chamber of Commerce, will be attended by Clementina de Forest Griffin, former principal of the school, and other prominent alumni of Narbonne. Reservations may be made by calling the Lomita Chamber.

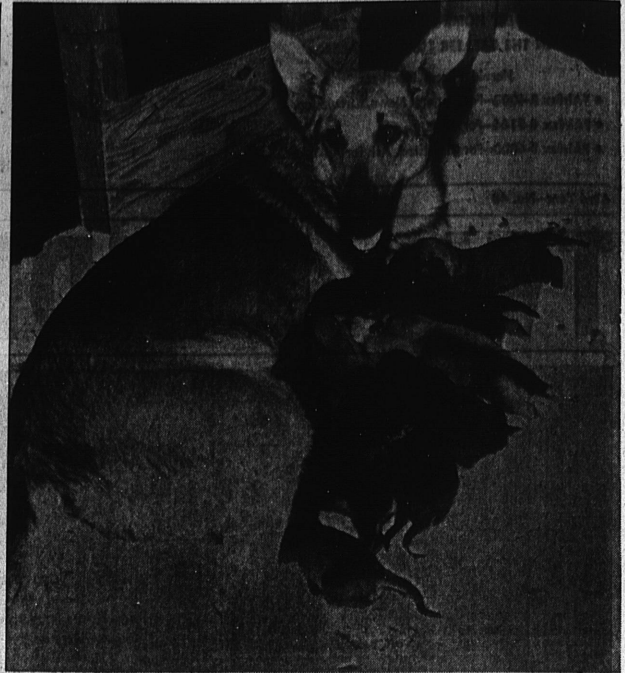

"Let's all swap problems—since everyone always knows how to solve the other person's."

WE MADE IT! . . . Those were the happy sentiments expressed by the graduates of Torrance High School as they held an all-night party at the Pacific Coast Club, Long Beach, last Thursday night following graduation exercises. Shown eating a 4 a.m. breakfast are Peggy Sprout, Howard Smith, Harold Mathews, Becky Jones, Ben Boegh, Jacque Van Camp, and Dick Greenlaw.

HAPPY TRIO . . . Celebrating their graduation from North High School after commencement ceremonies Thursday night are a happy piano trio—Steve Whelen, Diane Trimble, and Karl Graham—as Myron Leister looks on. The NHS grads held an all-night party at the Western Avenue Country Club.

CHEAPER BY THE DOZEN . . . This two-year-old German shepherd belonging to Mrs. Tom Hanna, 22009 Neptune Ave., believes the old saw that things are cheaper by the dozen. For her first litter, the pedigreed "Princess" gave birth to 12 puppies, six females and six males. First litters are usually much smaller—half that number being uncommon several people told Mrs. Hanna.

WHEN IT'S TIME TO MOVE

ONCE UPON A TIME

—everybody's stored furniture was mixed up and piled up in old buildings. Today, as in our moving vans, we separately and entirely close each family's possessions in portable rooms which are parked in neat rows in our warehouse which is as big as it is new.

Here's a good place to stop . . . at our storage company. We store your furniture, rugs and glassware at moderate cost. Fireproof storage, of course.
