MARINELAND SCENE OF BIRTHDAY FETE

To celebrate his fifth birthday, Dale Altermat took 13 of his young friends to Marineland for the day.

Going along to help with the party were his mother, Mrs. Howard R. Altermat, of 1323 Hickory Ave., and Mrs. M. W. Lemons.

Youngsters who had ice cream, cake and Hopalong Cassidy cocktails at the Marineland Restaurant were Bobbie Altermat, Bobbie, Donna and Judy Lemons, Steven and Neal Flowers, Steve Smith, Steve Wall, Rocky and Peggy Post, Wayne and Scott Barker, Artie Ley.

SANDRA PENNER TO VISIT NEBRASKA

Sandra Penner, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Royal Penner, 1216 Teri Ave., will leave by train July 1 to visit her grandparents in Cozad, Neb.

The youngster will spend three or four weeks on her trip.

LOCAL PTA ACTIVITIES

186th Street

May meeting of the 186th Street School PTA was held on Thursday, May 23 in the school auditorium with Mrs. Herman Eisenbeiss, president, in charge. This was the last meeting of the year, and Mrs. Hugh Allen, historian, presented her report. This was a series of living pictures portraying the happenings of the past year, while Mrs. Allen narrated the report in rhyme.

Mrs. W. A. Blackner, Gardena-Wilmington Council president, installed the following officers for the ensuing year: Mmes. James Ellis, president; Walter Stewart, first vice president; Phillippe Major, second vice president; R. Dean Bryan, secretary; Billie Lewis, treasurer; Hugh Allen, auditor; Donald Dittmann, historian; and Herman Eisenbeiss, parliamentarian. Mrs. Blackner used trees as the theme of the installation and compared the different officers to the corresponding parts of the tree.

Robert Lyon, 8th grade teacher, showed color slides of his trip to Europe, when he went as a representative of the YMCA. He promised the members a further treat sometime in the future, as he is scheduled to represent them in Africa at some late date.

The annual report was given to the members in mimeographed form, and it showed the tremendous progress made by the PTA the past year. Mrs. Ellis presented Mrs. Eisenbeiss with a past-president's pin, and Mrs. Eisenbeiss in turn presented her with the gavel and wished her well in her coming term as president.

Anza

First officers of the new Anza PTA were elected at a recent meeting. They are Mrs. Gordon Stephens, president; Mrs. William Panache, first vice president; Carl Shaver, second vice president; Mrs. Ralph Johnston, third vice president; Mrs. Nolan Corbin, fourth vice president.

Others are Mrs. William Roseberry, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Roy Hoyer, recording secretary; Mrs. John Rounsefell, Jr., treasurer; Mrs. Jackson Belford, auditor; and Mrs. Orville Travis, historian.

Riviera

Board of directors of the Riviera PTA and all committee chairmen met at the home of Mrs. Carl Whistler, recording secretary, 5314 Paseo de Pablo on June 4. As Mrs. Gene Voorhees, president, introduced each officer and chairman, she explained the duties of her office. Special committee meetings were planned during the summer to arrange a full and new program for the year 1957-58.

Mrs. James Ogborn, first vice president and program chairman, scheduled the first meeting of that group for June 26 at 1:30 in the teachers room at Riviera school. The theme for the year will be "strength in PTA: Vision, Courage and Action."

Mrs. Forrest Sedgewick, youth activities; Mrs. Ernest Weller, pre-school; and Robert Atha, recreation, joined Mrs. Voorhees at the Coordinating Council June 15th meeting.

On June 10, Mrs. Leo Levanas, third vice president, Mrs. Ogborn and Mrs. Voorhees attended the T.E.A.C. Meeting.

Mrs. Edward Davis, fourth vice-president and room representative chairman asked that any person wishing to volunteer her service contact her immediately so that the committee may begin functioning early.

Perry

Plans for coming events were made at the executive board meeting Thursday in the teachers' room at the school.

Mrs. Kenneth Judd, new president of the organization presided. She opened the meeting with an explanation of PTA policy and all new members were introduced.

The group elected Mrs. Eugene Phillips as vice president to replace Mrs. Frank Solis, who resigned. Mrs. Wendall Morgan will fill the office of recording secretary, held by Mrs. Phillips.

Co-carnival chairman, Mrs. Lester Cooper, presented her committee's ideas for the carnival, which will be held Oct. 26.

Mrs. Phillips read the minutes of the last meeting and
