

Recreation Set on School Playgrounds July 1-Aug. 2

School playgrounds throughout Torrance will be open for recreation purposes from 1 p.m., until 5 p.m. beginning Mon., and continuing through Aug. 2.

This summer recreation program is a co-operative endeavor of the City of Torrance and the Torrance Unified School District.

Wide Variety
A supervised playground is within easy access of every child in the city and will carry on a wide variety of activities with time schedules available at the playgrounds and published in the HERALD.

Summer activities include badminton, band concerts, baseball, chess, circle ball, craft instruction, croquet, day camping, dramatics, equipment play, field trips, hobbies, horse-rides, movies, music, nature activities, parades, social dancing, softball, song fests, square dancing, story telling, tournaments and volleyball.

TAPIA HOME DEDICATED ON SUNDAY

Occupying the highlight of activity and new home special events during the past week was the home dedication of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Tapia of 3511 W. 226th St.

The special service of dedication was conducted by the Rev. M. J. Zamorano, pastor of the 223rd St. Baptist Church, of which the Tapia family are active members.

Mr. and Mrs. Tapia, beside serving on the Board of Deacons are active in youth activities of that church. Mrs. Tapia served also as chairman of various committees of the Hall-dale Street School PTA and recently was parliamentarian of the 223rd St. School PTA.
