

Torrance Herald
Social World

EDNA CLOYD, Editor

JULY 4, 1957

FA 8-5164

Nine

Easley-Borns Names Linked In Military Nuptial Service

In one of the loveliest weddings of the season, a military nuptial ceremony on Sunday afternoon at the Neighborhood Church in Palos Verdes, Miss Mary Susan Easley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Clifford E. Easley, 234 Camino Del Campo, became the bride of Lt. Leo F. Borns, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Borns of St. Louis, Mo., who were here for the wedding. The beautiful bride was radiant in her Cahill original wedding gown of Chantilly lace. The gown was designed with a scooped neckline, short sleeves, moulded bodice and the floor-length skirt fell into a chapel-length train. A regal white satin crown secured the fingertip illusion veil and the bride carried a white Bible and a bouquet of white orchids tied with satin streamers entwined with lilies of the valley. Dr. Easley escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Miss Cynthia Easley was her sister's maid of honor. The five bridesmaids were Misses Janel Beeman, Lynn Mortenson, Janet Ziler, Mary Ellen Spencer and Martha Ann Frazier.

All of the bride's attendants wore pink chiffon gowns detailed with tucked bodices, scoop necklines and pink cummerbunds. Each wore a tiny pink bandeau hat and carried shower bouquets of pink carnations.

Petite Donna Fay Easley, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl.

The bridegroom, his best man and ushers were all in white summer dress uniforms.

Lt. Dan Spencer served as best man and counterparts were Lts. Ray Crater, Paul Rimlinger, Billy Mathews, Dave Stauffer and Roger Kraus.

The Rev. Richard A. Dawson, church pastor, conducted the vow exchange. The couple left the church under the crossed swords of the navy lieutenants.

The church patio was the setting for the reception where the 300 wedding guests were received by the bridal couple and their parents.

A pink and white color scheme was used at the reception with a large floral arrangement centering the bride's table. Following tradition, a four tiered pink and white wedding cake was cut with the bridegroom's sword.

After the reception, the couple left for a honeymoon with destination undisclosed. Their new home will be in Coronado where Lt. Borns is stationed with the United States Navy Air Corps.

Mrs. Borns, Jr., was graduated from Torrance High school and Whittier college. Her husband was graduated from Cleveland High school and the Harris Teachers college in St. Louis before entering the Navy.

MRS. LEO BORN'S JR.
 ... To Reside in Coronado

(Bob Roberts Photo)

MRS. JOHN HAINES ROWELL
 ... Radiant Bride

Nancy Taylor-John H. Rowell Speak Vows by Candlelight

Large white wicker baskets filled with white larkspur, gladioli, marguerites, baby breath and daisies and decorated with large bows of yellow satin ribbon enhanced the chancel of the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection on Saturday evening, June 22, at 6:30 p.m. for the nuptials of Miss Nancy Ann Taylor and John Haines Rowell. White candles in standards cast a glow over the sanctuary, where the Rev. Zanzi stood to officiate at the vow exchange.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne D. Fox, 5464 Sharynne Lane, chose a gown of embroidered organdy over white tulle and taffeta for her wedding. The waist length illusion veil was held by a crown of embroidered organdy. The bride carried a shower bouquet of yellow roses, marguerites and ivy.

Miss Sally Pool was the maid of honor. She wore a yellow embroidered organdy over taffeta. Her headpiece was of organdy and tulle and she carried yellow chiffon daisies and ivy.

Flower girls were Miss Mary Ann McCool of Maricopa and Miss Patricia Boone of Delano, nieces of the bridegroom. They wore floor length yellow organdy gowns and carried wicker baskets of petals. Wesley Fox was the ringbearer.

David Rowell was best man and ushers were Robert Taylor and Mert Stafford.

Following the ceremony, Mrs. Charles Teale sang Grieg's "I Love Thee."

Following a reception at La Venta Inn, the newlyweds left by plane for a three weeks honeymoon in Mexico City and Acapulco.

After the middle of July, they will be at home at 478 Landfair Ave., Westwood.

The bride, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz C. Schultz of Torrance, was graduated from Torrance High School in June. She was the Gold Seal Bearer of California Scholarship Federation, won the United Nations essay contest, and was a member of the Art and Future Teachers Club. She will attend UCLA in the fall.

Mr. Rowell served four years with the United States Air Force after his Maricopa High school graduation. The son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Rowell of New Cuyama is employed by Los Angeles Airways at International Airport.

MRS. DONALD D. JENSEN
 ... On Honeymoon

(Portrait by Seaman)

Larson-Jensen Vows Are Recited Sunday

Diane Larson was a beautiful bride last Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. when she approached the altar in the First Lutheran Church, on the arm of her father, to exchange her wedding promises with Donald D. Jensen. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leslie M. Larson, 1515 Acacia Ave., and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jensen, 1120 Vincent, Redondo Beach.

The wedding gown of white raw silk was fashioned on princess lines. The semi-sweetheart neckline was emphasized with Chantilly lace dotted with sequins. It also had the long lily point sleeves and the Chantilly lace inserts ornamented the floor length skirt which fell into a semi-chapel train. Her pure silk bridal veil cascaded from a crown made of two layers of leaves sprinkled with rhinestones and pearls. Completing the bridal picture was the cascade of white begonias and stephanotis tied with satin ribbons.

Miss Peggy Franklin was the maid of honor. She wore a pastel green nylon chiffon gown. Her miniature pale green veil was secured by a crown of miniature pom poms. Green begonias tied with deeper green satin formed her bouquet.

Bridesmaids were Misses Grace Maddy, Jean Northey, Mrs. Joan Keidser, of Redondo and Mrs. Gail Davis, of Los Angeles. The rainbow colors predominated in their chiffon gowns. Miss Northey was in pink, Miss Maddy in lavender, Mrs. Keidser in turquoise, and Mrs. Davis in yellow. Each wore a short veil to match her gown and carried Esther Reed daisies tinted in shades to match her gown.

Little Miss Candy Peckham, wearing a bouffant nylon frock dotted with tiny pink flowers and carrying a bouquet of pink and white rosebuds, dropped petals in the path of the bride.

Kenneth Kirksey stood as best man and ushers were Lee Richardson, Donald Alexander,

William R. K. Ferrill, and George Jensen.

The Rev. Paul Wenske, church pastor, officiated at the marriage and Mrs. Wenske, at the organ, played the wedding marches and accompanied William Womack as he sang "Take My Hand," "To Each His Own" and the "Wedding Prayer," as the couple knelt for the blessing.

In charge of the guest book were Mrs. Nancy Hesson and Miss Patricia Mouser.

The 350 wedding guests then attended a reception at the YWCA. The newlyweds are now on a northern California honeymoon. Their new home will be in Lomita.

The bride was graduated from El Camino after which she attended Long Beach City College graduating this June as a dental nurse. She is a member of Chi Theta Chi and Sigma Iota Delta sororities.

The bridegroom is majoring in civil engineering at USC where he is a member of Phi Sigma Upsilon and the Engineer's Club.

Patio Supper

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Patton entertained a group of friends Saturday evening at a barbecue in the patio at their home, 905 Cranbrook.

After the barbecue supper the group played cards.

Enjoying the Patton hospitality were Messrs. and Mmes. Tom Edwards, Wayne Norman, Nolan Stuckey and William Crooker.

COUPLE FETED ON 16TH ANNIVERSARY

A group of friends will gather Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Quinton C. Johnson, 5351 Carol Dr., to honor Mr. and Mrs. George Betus on the latter's 16th wedding anniversary.

Invited for the evening of dancing in the patio are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fay, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmal, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wolff, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zinn, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Morrison, Mrs. Marty Briggs and Jim Reese.

Verne H. Coopers on Mexico Honeymoon; Married June 22

In Mexico, on a two weeks' honeymoon, are Mr. and Mrs. Verne H. Cooper whose wedding was a lovely event of June 22 at 7:30 p.m. at the Neighborhood Church in Palos Verdes. Mrs. Cooper is the former Joyce Ann Ockerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Blaine A. Ockerman, 144 Mesa Grande, Hollywood Rivera. Mr. and Mrs. Verne H. Cooper of Redondo are parents of the bridegroom.

In a floor length wedding gown with a scoop neckline, Chantilly lace bodice, and a billowy four-tiered nylon skirt, the bride came to the altar on the arm of her father. A pearl and lace headpiece secured the bridal veil and she carried a white orchid atop a small white Bible.

Mrs. Edwin Fletcher was the matron of honor wearing a poufere blue chiffon over satin fashioned with the empire waistline. Her bouquet was of pink roses.

Jack Ward performed the duties of best man and Bob Peck and Ewel Grosberg served as ushers.

At the reception held at the Ockerman home, Mrs. Hattie Taylor registered the guests.

The couple will reside at the Topaz apartments in Redondo. The bride was graduated from North Texas State High School and attended St. Marcus Academy.

The bridegroom was graduated from Redondo High School and UCLA.

MRS. VERNE H. COOPER
 ... Married June 22

(Doug Kilgour Photo)

MISS ALICE CARPENTER
 ... Troth Revealed

Bridge Club

Midsummer flowers decorated the table Tuesday when Mrs. Dean Sears entertained her bridge club at her home, 1635 Post Ave.

An afternoon of bridge followed the serving of the luncheon.

Club members present were Mmes. Paul Loranger, W. C. Boswell, M. A. Bauman, Kay Garrity, Mel Miller. Substitutes were Mmes. Robert Morton and A. L. Posner.

ST. LOUIS GUESTS

Mrs. Stella Walker and granddaughter, Karen, of St. Louis, Mo., are here visiting with Mrs. Walker's daughter, Mrs. Clark Wheeler, 17640 Fonthill Ave.

AT PRESS CLUB CELEBRATION

Attending Los Angeles Press Club's anniversary celebration and the "Miss California" beauty contest at the Ambassador last Friday evening were Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Bauman, Messrs. and Mmes. W. C. Boswell and Louis Dyer; and Jack Hudson.

HAWAII VACATION

Miss Joy Calloway and her sister, Mrs. Flora Dean Coggins of Ventura, will leave by plane July 10 for a 10 day vacation in Hawaii. The two travelers are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Calloway, 2226 247th St.

Alice Carpenter Will Wed Richard Berry in August

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Carpenter, 2427 Pacific Coast Hwy., Lomita, are announcing the engagement and wedding plans of their daughter, Alice, to Richard Berry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Berry, 1667 W. 255th St.

The wedding will be solemnized in August. Miss Carpenter was graduated from Narbonne High in 1956. She will be a sophomore at Long Beach State College next fall.

The benedict was graduated from El Camino in 1956 and will be a junior at Long Beach State next year where he is a business major.