

Armed Forces

A Torrance man who has served with both the Navy and Air Force has recently been selected as aide de camp to the chief of staff, Headquarters Second United States Army, Fort George G. Meade, Maryland.

He is First Lieutenant Basil E. Ross whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Ross Sr., reside at 10525 New Hampshire Ave., Torrance. Lt. Ross saw duty with the Navy from 1943 to 1947 and the Air Force from 1950 to 1951. His last assignment in the Army was as administrative officer for Col. Martin L. Green, post commander at Fort Meade.

Lt. Ross completed his preliminary education in 1948 at public schools in West Plains, Mo., and was enrolled one year at St. John's College in Windfield, Kansas. He entered the Army Oct. 30, 1951, and completed his Army basic training at Camp Chaffee, Arkansas.

Prior to beginning federal service, he was employed by Trans-Ocean Airlines at Oakland.

His decorations, theater and service ribbons include the following: the United States, Korean service, Philippine liberation, Philippine independence and Philippine presidential citation, the national service defense, Army of Occupation, World War II victory medal, Asiatic-Pacific, American theater and good conduct medal, the Navy unit commendation, and the Navy presidential unit citation.

Ernie L. Clontz, gunner's mate third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvie E. Clontz, of 3123 W. 187th St., is serving with the Pacific Reserve Fleet, Columbia River Group at the Tongue Point Naval Station, Astoria, Ore.

The station is a "mothballing" center where auxiliary vessels of the U. S. Pacific Reserve Fleet are inactivated.
