Pacific Telephone yesterday asked the California Public Utilities Commission for a repricing of some of its services to offset increased wage payments, higher local and state taxes and other costs.

The application does not call for a boost in individual and party line telephone rates.

Exam for New Chief Of Police Scheduled

Examinations for the posts of police chief and assistant police chief are expected to be held next month.

The promotional tests have been ordered by the City Civil Service Commission, according to Board Secretary,

Walter Bradford.

The office of Torrance Police Chief has been vacant since the April 1 retirement of W. H. Haslam, and Assistant Chief Percy Bennett has served as acting police chief. Only Bennett and Capt. Ennest Ashton are eligible to compete for the chief's office, while any lieutenant of five years standing can qualify for the assistant chief's police position.
