SUCCESS STORY
Housewife Succeeds in Dignified New Career

LYDIA BRANDT, housewife in Fort Morgan, smilingly indicates the "magic couch" in foreground, which played such a large part in helping her become one of the country's most successful figure consultants.

FORT MORGAN, COLO.—How a housewife can carve out a brilliant new career for herself in a fascinating type of work which combines dignity with an opportunity to be of real help to others is demonstrated by the remarkable success story of Lydia Brandt.

Mrs. Brandt chose her new career after becoming enthusiastic about the Stauffer Home Reducing Plan by which she was able to trim her weight from 184 pounds to 122. Since then she has been "troubling" for the Plan—so effectively, in fact, that she has sold it to more than 500 people in her community.

Like other trained salespeople in the Stauffer Home Reducing Plan organization, Mrs. Brandt earns an exceptionally high income. In fact, over the last three years, many of the organization's trained salespeople have averaged $1000.00 a month or more. Mrs. I. K. of Chicago earned $810 one month; Mrs. K. B. of Los Angeles $850; Mrs. J. G. of New York $740.
