To Nazarenes

Evangelist Joe Kemp, "The Gospel Magician," will present a series of object lessons with his magic at 9:45 Sunday morning at the Torrance Church of the Nazarene.

Formerly a professional stage magician, Rev. Kemp later studied for the chaplaincy. While in the examinary he conceived the idea of using magic to Illustrate the Bible.

After he graduated, he tourded America, speaking in 38 states to some 2000 audiences in youth rallies, hospitals, jails, prisons, reformatories, conferences, conventions, and churches of 27 different denominations. The public is invited to the Sunday talk.

Preparation Week' Slated By Baptists

By Baptists

The Narbonne Avenue Southern Baptist Church will use the week of Sept. 22-27 as "Preparation Week."

The church has selected more than 200 people to fill places of responsibility for the new church year that begins Oct. 1.

"This will be a time of preparing for the new year," stated Pastor Robert A. Wells. On Sept. 27 the church will conclude the Preparation Week with one of the most popular events of the year, the Workers' Appreciation Banquet.

Advancement Sunday pulsin Sunday pupils in Sunday School and Training Union are advanced to their new departments for the new year. A goal has been set to have a record attendance on that Sunday.

Registration Slated Sunday

Registration, tables will be in the patio at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church again Sunday to permit registration of all parish children in Sunday School, according to Jessica Jelf, director of religious education for the church.

All children from two years of age up to and including high school are provided for in the Sunday School, the director said.

Baby sitting is available each Sunday for children under two years of age.
