Bon Voyage Given for Tom Quaggin

Tom Quaggin, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Roberts, left Friday evening via the Scandinavian Polar Route for Europe to continue his education. Tom will teach English at the Berlitz School of Languages while continuing his studies of various languages.

In Copenhagen he will visit one week with Carl Hoybe, exchange student who spent last year here. Tom will then go on to Wurzburg to make his home with the family with whom he resided while studying in Europe under the American Field Service while a senior at Torrance High School.

On Friday evening a bon voyage party was held at The Palms restaurant. Attending with the honor guest were his parents, his sisters and their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tolson and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Witt; Miss Katherine Chisholm, Leo Young, Miss Teri Aker and Miss Barbara Hester.

NEW SQUARE DANCE WILL BEGIN OCT. 8

A new square dance class, open to residents of Torrance and all bay cities, will begin on Tuesday, Oct. 8. The class, open to beginners until Oct. 29, will meet every Tuesday evening from 8:30 until 11 at the Knights of Columbus hall, 214 Ave. I, Redondo Beach. Clarence Barrow will be the caller.

Round dances will also be taught by Clarence and Florence Barrow. Any interested person is asked to call the Barrows.

FIREMAN'S BALL... Fireman Al Knappenberger is surrounded by women selling tickets to the annual Fireman's Ball, Oct. 12, at the American Legion Hall. Mrs. George Blahnik, left, and Mrs. Bill Wood, of the Fireman's auxiliary, explain that all the proceeds will go to the Fireman's Widows' Fund. Mel Cones and his Swingsters will provide music for dancing.

INDIO GUESTS
Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Moffitt, 2724 Arlington Ave., had at their recent week end guests Mrs. Moffitt's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Williams of Indio.

VISIT DAUGHTER
Mr. and Mrs. Chris Jones, 2118 Martuna Ave., spent the week end in Santa Ana as guests of their daughter, Mrs. Barnes Hunt and family.

Junior Club Welcomes New Members at Dinner Meeting

Torrance Junior Woman's Club held its initiation dinner on Wednesday evening, Sept. 25, at the Torrance Women's Clubhouse. The 16 new members were greeted by the president, Mrs. John Schwartz, Mrs. Lee Allen, first vice president, introduced the new members, Mmes. Richard N. Oliver, John K. Mallory, Elgin E. Logsdon, Clayton T. Lilley, Joseph H. Merrill, Don McCasim, Mrs. James Shellsberger, Lewis G. Mack, Don Carlson, Edward D. Aiken, Will L. Wiley, Jr., George W. Post, Hector Theros, J. J. Turner, Dale E. Cote, Robert J. Petrini.

Mrs. K. M. Boulter, federation director, reminded members that they belong to the General Federation of Women's Clubs, an international organization of clubwomen, the largest in the world. Torrance Junior Woman's Club has been a member, along with 200 other clubs, to California Federation of Women's Clubs since 1945. This club has a membership of over 9000 young women. The object of the club is to further philanthropic activities, social, and civic betterment.

After refreshments, Mrs. Minot Rugg, president, conducted a business meeting. The club members then held a discussion on flowers and flower containers after which they toured the Stevens' gardens. Three members attended the District 2-A board meeting held recently in Los Angeles. The Garden Club's next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. George Powell, 4017 Bluff St., when the program will consist of a talk and demonstration on flower arrangements.

Mrs. W. Stevens was hostess to the Torrance Terrace Garden Club at her home, 1550 24th St., last Wednesday afternoon.

Garden Club Opens Year

A regular meeting of the Beau Jardin Club was held at the home of Mrs. Donald Drorbaugh, 5520 Palos Verdes Blvd., Sept. 25.

The program of the evening was presented by program chairman, Mrs. Donald Drorbaugh and consisted of a movie entitled "Wild Flowers of the West." The movie acquainted all with the most lovely wild flowers which are truly wonders of nature, ranging from state to state, through deserts and mountains.

The door prize, a lovely aster bush, was won by Mrs. Albert Yackie and a kitchen butcher set was won by Mrs. John Beattie.

Refreshments were served by the hostess. Present at the meeting were Mmes. John Beattie, John Carrievan, James Stadler, Fred Worgul and Albert Yackie. Guest speaker was Mrs. Charles Miller.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Harmon, 22317 Warmside Ave. on Oct. 9.
