G-W Council Narbonne

Gardena-Wilmington Council held its first meeting recently with Mrs. Steve Byers, former magazine chairman for Tenth District, as principal speaker. Main theme of Mrs. Byers' inspiring talk was of all the wonderful things a person learns in PTA. A parent-teacher worker has gotten more out of the association than she has put into it. In closing Mrs. Byers said, "Everything you put into the lives of others, you get back again. Enjoy your PTA."

Mrs. C. N. Peterson, president, introduced the officers and chairman of the Council. Two skills were presented—one on magazines and the other on the forthcoming membership drive. Participants in the skills were Mmes. A. J. Blake, Gordon Lewis, William Gurski, Don Armstrong, Hugh Theurer and D. O. Crono.

Unit PTAs represented were Amestoy Ave., Carson St., Cat-skill Ave., Chapman Ave., Del Amo, Denker Ave., Dolores, Dominguez, Fries Ave., Gardena Elementary, Gulf Ave., Hawaiian Ave., 186th St., 156th St., 135th St., Towne Ave., 323rd Pl., and Wilmington Park.

Narbonne

Narbonne High School PTA membership drive gets under way on Monday, Oct. 7. "The Forward Look" is the theme chosen for this year's campaign, as announced by Mrs. D. G. Cheek, chairman of the membership committee.

The parents of each student attending the high school are urged to join to help put a 100% successful drive.

Every child benefits either directly or indirectly from the money received through the provision of milk, clothing, school lunches, emergency relief to those in need and indirectly through organizing study of home, school and community problems, securing adequate legislation for care and protection of youth, extending recreational projects and practical school assistance not obtained from school studies, stated Mrs. Ray Reed, publicity chairman.

Faculty representative for the membership campaign will be Robert Hammond, social studies teacher. Also working on the drive with Mrs. Creek will be Mmes. Melvin Smith, C. L. Wilson, John Blackmon, P. T. A. President, and Miss Helen Gustafson, girls vice-principal.
