30 Kiwanians Attend Meet In Long Beach

Thirty members of the Kiwanis Club of Torrance met in Long Beach last week with other representatives of Kiwanis Clubs from California-Nevada-Hawaii, at the 37th annual convention.

Torrance President John A. Barrington stated, "Kiwanians of the South Bay area are especially proud of the fact that a local man is district governor —Logan R. Cotton of Hermosa Beach."

"We build — Integrity, Leadership, and Service" was the theme of the opening convention address by Gov. Cotton speaking at the Long Beach Civic Auditorium. Other speakers during the convention told Kiwanias of "Integrity," by J. Hugh Jackson, past president of Kiwanis International; "What Does Inflation Mean to the Businessman," by Edmund W. Tabell, institutional research director, "Action for the World," by Don Sunukyian, governor of district Key Clubs.

Entertaining the Kiwanians and their ladies at a Monday night variety show were, Anita Aros, violinist, Dave Barry, comedian, Mercer Brothers, Nick Lucas, guitarist, Tuesday evening saw the Governor's Ball with music conducted by Leighton Noble.

New Salvage Store Opens

A new St. Vincent de Paul Store has been opened at 22020 Edgar St., Torrance, to service the bay area, Long Beach and Orange County, it was announced by Albert Tassi, general manager of the St. Vincent de Paul Salvage Bureau.

Marginal income families of the area will find a complete line of merchandise available at reasonable prices, including clothing, furniture, and household articles, Tassi said.

The store is open from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. daily and can be reached by taking 220th St. to Edgar St., east of Avalon Blvd.

In addition to the 2000 square foot store, the steel and concrete buliding, constructed by J. A. McNeil Co., houses 10,000 square feet of warehouse area.

Other St. Vincent stores for marginal income families are located at 727 N. Broadway and 4743 Brooklyn Ave., Los Angeles; 365 W. Compton Blvd., Compton; and 225 W. Sixth St., San Pedro.

Fellowship Grants Open

Applications for the Rotary Foundation Fellowship Award are open until Nov. 15, according to Dr. Joseph Bay, president of the Torrance Rotary Club.

The applications are open to students who have completed four years of accrediated college work and who are planning on a year of study in some other country. Applicants must read, write, and speak the language of the country they want to study in. They may apply through the local club.

Walstrand Graduated In Defense Training

Victor Walstrand, 823 Elm Ave., has received a graduation certificate from the Los Angeles Civil Defense and Disaster Corps for completion of an intensive 32-hour basic and light-rescue training course.

The training course, conducted by the Los Angeles City Board of Public Works at their Chavez Ravine Rescue Training Center, is designed to teach the basic procedures of emergency rescue to volunteer civil defense workers, governmental employes and personnel of various local business and industrial firms.

Walstrand is employed with the L.A. City Bureau of Public Buildings.

'BABY GOES HOME' TO BE SHOWN TODAY

As an educational service of the County Health Department, the film, "Baby Goes Home," has been booked for the Torrance expectant mothers' class today at 1 p.m., which meets in the Torrance Health Center, 2300 Carson St. Prospective parents are invited by Dr. B. A. Kogan, District Health Officer, to attend this or other of these tax-supported classes which meet every Thursday at 1 o'clock.
